Don't Rain On Sid's Parade

There will be no parade bylaw in Andover, thanks to Sidney P. White's strenuous objection to "such a ridiculous piece of nonsense," presented at Monday's session of town meeting.

Selectmen had inserted a proposed bylaw covering parades by other then municipal organizations as an item for consideration at the session.

But White, who as a town official has been in many a parade in Andover and elsewhere, saw no need for such regulations.

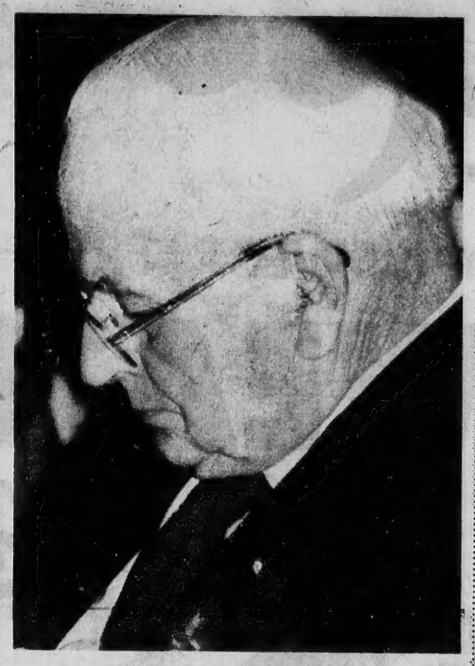
The first item on the agenda, White rose to address the voters on the issue and was asked by the moderator to identify himself, "for the benefit of those who might not know you."

"Sidney P. White, and the P stands for prat," White said, as he vocally sallied forth against processional regulations for Andover.

"There haven't been any problems in the past and no one anticipates any in the future, so why is a bylaw necessary," he asked, indicating his feeling that taking up three pages of the warrant with the proposed regulations was also ridiculous.

When he got to the stipulation that it would cost $25 to obtain a parade permit for a non-municipal organization, White simply asked if the voters "wanted Santa Claus to pay $25 to come to town? It was obvious there wouldn't be any parade regulations.

The annual Santa Claus parade is sponsored by the Andover Firefighters Relief Association and the Chamber of Commerce, both classed as non-municipal.



Sidney P. White

"... the P stands for prat"

The eventual overwhelming defeat of the bylaw, thus should pave the way for Santa to be welcomed to town this year with Sid and his palomino leading the way rather than Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer.

Raytheon Planning Expansion

Raytheon Co., is planning a $10-$14 million expansion of its West Andover plant and has asked selectmen to call for a special town meeting to provide sewer lines for the addition.

Selectmen are expected to meet Monday and probably call for a special town meeting Dec. 4, to act on the town's construction of the sewer line at a cost of about $125,000.

The planned expansion must still be approved by Raytheon corporate officials. If plans are given the go-ahead construction on the proposed 330,000 square food addition would begin in the spring, according to John Severance, vice president of public relations for the firm.

The addition would house the missile systems operations now located in the former Raytheon, or American Woolen Co. Shawsheen Mills. Upwards of 1,000 employees would be transferred from the Shawsheen location to have all the Andover missile systems work under one roof.

Raytheon would still maintain some space in the Shawsheen building, but 98 per cent of the operations would be at the West Andover plant, to where the major portion of the operation was moved in 1970.

The addition would be on the southern end of the building extending toward Wilmington, facing Route 93.

Severance said the plans will be studied in further detail at corporate headquarters.

A final decision would probably be pending the vote of the Andover town meeting on the sewer main installation.

When the new structure was built, following a summer, 1968 town meeting, the largest ever attended by Andover voters, new sewer lines were part of the proposal. These lines are now not adequate to meet the demands which will be placed by the addition.

Selectmen Chairman Albert Cole said that the sewer line article would probably be presented to voters similar to the proposal made for Hewlett-Packard — the town will undertake the work when the final commitment is made by Raytheon.

Cole looked upon the proposal as very beneficial to the town, pointing to the expenditure of some $100,000 plus for a sewer line which will result in probably an additional $400,000 in taxes annually.

Raytheon, with the exception of one year during the construction of its new facility, has been Andover's top taxpayer since it moved into the former Shawsheen Mills property in the mid-1950's.

The announcement of the proposed addition brings further flourish to the town's

Town Meeting Approves Purchase Of Computers

Town Meeting Tuesday night gave town and school officials the computer packages they've been wanting, over the objections of a few residents who claimed various degrees of expertise in hardware and software.

By a vote of 297 to 158, the voters provided $380,000 from available funds to purchase two Digital Equipment Corp. PDP 11/70's, plus thee ADMINS software system for the town and Minuteman software for the schools.

Business Manager Edward Maguire said yesterday he was "optimistic" that the school computer, to be housed at the Voke School, could be delivered by December. He said a date as late as spring was possible, however. DEC had originally discussed a Nov. 1 delivery providing the order was in by Sept. 1.

The first school applications will be those already in the works at the Voke School: scheduling, grade reporting and payroll. Maguire said he hoped they'd be phased into the new computer by the end of the fiscal year.

Meanwhile, Asst. Town Manager Sheldon Cohen said Wednesday he expects the town's computer to be delivered to the second floor of Town Hall by Dec. 15. Advertisements for necessary renovations to the building are in today's paper.

Cohen said the first town business to be put on the new computer will be payroll, budgeting and accounting, water and sewer billing and revenue — functions now running on the town's antiquated NCR equipment.

He said the first new addition will be police analysis.

Questions from the floor of town meeting Tuesday centered primarily on the need for two computers, the method of financing, cost effectiveness and the selection process.

The hour-and-a-half discussion was prolonged twice by written amendments aimed at separating the vote on the school and town systems. Both amendments, however, were overwhelmingly defeated.

George Orfanedes, chairman of the Computer Advisory Committee which worked more than a year on the proposal, noted that another committee, back in 1974, had recommended computer services to provide the town with more timely financial information, help eliminate duplication in bookkeeping and improve the management of high-cost services.

Chairman David Ahouse of the school committee said he was looking to the computers to provide a more efficient way to run an "$11 million-plus business," and improve services at the same time. He said they'd be used in the central office as well as in individual schools, and would aid in program budgeting, state and federal reports and applications, inventory control, payroll, student information and the like.

Speaking in favor of the article for the selectmen, Jim Abramson also emphasized the financial and accounting uses for the computer. He said the computer would impact negotiations by providing cost information on overtime, workmen's compensation and benefits, and in the area of management, he said it would aid in job costing, fleet and plant maintenance, performance measurement and inventory control. He said the computer would also better monitor criminal activities and could provide such other services as library circulation.

Town Group To Tour H-P Exercise Course

On Saturday morning, Oct. 28, members of Andover's Community Services Committee and Acting Department of Community Services Director Joan S. Pearson will tour a new recreational exercise course which was recently completed at Hewlett Packard Company's Andover Plant. Construction of the exercise course was a cooperative effort between Hewlett Packard and its employees, with the company providing the materials and the employees furnishing the labor.

The Community Services Committee and Department have been considering the constuction of an exercise course at a town playground as part of a capital budget project scheduled for the early 1980's.

Al Kyle of Hewlett Packard Andover, the chairman of the exercise course construction Committee, has been working closely with Comunity Services Committee Chairman Charles G. Rancourt. In Rancourt's words, "Al Kyle has already provided invaluable advice and technical assistance."

The exercise course concept, which combines a jogging path of several miles with a number of exercise stations along the way, originated in Europe. Exercise courses first became popular in the United States in California in the early 1970's and have since spread to 31 states. Hewlett Packard is a leader among businesses making exercise courses available to employees. Courses are located at Hewlett Packard plants in San Jose and Cupertino, Calif., and in West Germany.

In addition to the Community Services Committee, which until recently was called the Recreation/Community Schools Committee, Andover's selectmen, town manager and assistant town manager have also been invited to tour the exercise course on Saturday.

Three Are Honored For Service

Three former members of the Finance Committee were presented plaques during the Monday night session of town meeting.

Atty, Robert S. Zollner, Mrs. Dana Duxbury and Mrs. Virginia Cole were presented the plaques in appreciation of their years as FinCom members by Moderator James D. Doherty.

Doherty noted that all three had served more than one term on the FinCom and had devoted many hours of service to Andover in the performance of their duties. The moderator also expressed appreciation to those residents of the community who place private articles in the warrant and present their proposals to town meeting, thanking them for, "making this business of government operate effectively."

Doherty referred to the work of persons such as Sharin Luti who worked on getting the mosquito item on the agenda and explained the project to the meeting Monday night.

Health Board To Give Flu Shots

Flu season is here and the Andover Board of Health recommends flu shots for persons over sixty years of age and individuals over 18 years of age with chronic disease. The vaccine for this year is trivalent vaccine, which includes A/Texas, A/Russian and B/Hong Kong.

The Board of Health will hold a free influenza vaccination clinic under the superivsion of James P. Kartell, M.D., who is a member of the Andover Board of Health.

Andover senior residents over sixty years of age and Andover residents over eighteen years of age with chronic diseases, such as heart disease, diabetes, lung or kidney disease, will be given shots Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 4 to 6 p.m. at Doherty School, 36 Bartlet St., Andover. Enter Doherty School at the front or side door of the playground. Parking is in the rear at Doherty School.

No appointment is necessary. Registration will take place at the clinic. Please bring eyeglasses if you wear them to read the registration form.

Any person allergic to eggs should not receive the vaccine. People with colds or illnesses with fever should wait until well enough to receive the vaccine.

Transportation is being offered to Andover seniors over sixty years of age. Call the Andover Haven at least 24 hours before the clinic date.

To Replace Flags On Graves

Members of the American Legion, Post No. 8 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Andover, will meet in the Veterans' Headquarters, 9 Essex St., Andover, on Sunday, Oct. 29, at 1 p.m. for the purpose of replacing more than 1100 American Flags on graves of Veterans who are interred in local cemeteries, prior to the observance of Veterans Day.

In the event of inclement weather, this activity will be postponed to the following Sunday, Nov. 5.

Glaucoma Screening Clinic Set

A Free Glaucoma Screening Clinic will be held at the Andover Haven, 11 Essex St. (formerly The Theater Building) on Nov. 4 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The clinic will be sponsored by the Andover Lion's Club in conjunction with the Andover Board of Health, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

The clinic will be under the guidance of Dr. Mark Abelson, opthalmologist of Andover.

The aim of the clinic is to screen anyone over 30 years of age and older for possible symptoms and signs of Glaucoma, a leading cause of blindness.

Senior Citizens or Shut-ins wishing transportation, may call The Haven before Friday, Nov. 3.

Meeting On Referenda Wednesday

An Open Meeting on the referenda questions will be held Nov. 2 at 7:45 p.m. in the Large Group Room of the high school. The meeting sponsored by the Voter Service of the Andover League of Women Voters will also cover the Conway-Carlson Tax Plan, a non-binding referenda question.

Sue Tucker who has been trained by the State League will lead the discussion. A review of the red book sent out by the Secretary of State, additional copies of which may be found at the Post Office, library, and Town Clerk's Office, would be helpful. The library will also have a display on the questions.

Coffee and tea will be available throughout the evening.

Free Concert

The New England Conservatory Repertory Wind Ensemble, conducted by Michael Walters, will give a free concert in Jordan Hall on Thursday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m.

The program will include Music for the Royal Fireworks by Handel, Sonata XIX by Gabrieli, Suite, Opus 4 by Peter Mennin, Fantasia in G Major by J. S. Bach, Folk Song Suite by Ralph Vaughan Williams, and William Byrd Suite by Byrd/Jacob.

Financial assistance for free concerts is provided by the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

In Concert

On Sunday evening, Oct. 29, Vallario will perform classical piano music at the Methuen Memorial Music Hall, Rte. 28, Methuen, at 7 p.m. The program will incude works of Scarlatti, Mozart, Rossini, Chopin, Liszt, and Vallario.

Vallario is well-known locally, playing and giving annual concerts. He is currently pianist-in-residence at the Andover Inn, Andover, where his classical music can be heard Monday through Saturday.

Lets Talk About . . .APPLE JUICE!

The bottles of dark, velvety unfiltered apple juice found in THE EARTHFOOD STORE, are full of the genuine liquified apple, filtered juices, on the other hand, have a much lighter color and texture, and the taste is much more distant. Filtering is refining, and the more a juice is refined the more it will taste like water.

THE EARTHFOOD STORE carries juices with that "stuff at the bottom of the bottle" that is rich in proteins, minerals, fibers and pectins.

Appointed Center Director

Ann Russell

Ann Russell of Concord, has been appointed director of the New England Document Conservation Center (NEDCC) in Andover, effective Oct. 9, according to an announcement from J. Gary Nichols, chairman of the New England Library Board, NEDCC's governing body. One of the director's early actions will be to appoint a conservator who will bring fresh skills and new direction to the center's paper restoration workshop.

Ms. Russell succeeds Interim Director Howard P. Lowell, who has served since last March, shortly after former director/conservator George M. Cunha assumed the status of director emeritus. Lowell is returnig to Oregon, where he has held various archival consultantships.

Formerly assistant director of the DeCordova Museum in Lincoln, Ms. Russell brings to the Document Conservation Center substantive experience in fund-raising, fiscal management, personnel administration, and public relations — areas in which she will assume major responsibility at NEDCC. In 1974-76, she was development director for the museum, and in 1973-74 she served as director of membership and public affairs at the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities. She has also been active in the New England Conference of Museums, chairing the administrators' group in 1977-78.

A graduate (magna cum laude) from Radcliffe College with a B.A. in history, Ms. Russell holds a doctorate in English literature from Brandeis University. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and is a former Woodrow Wilson Fellow. Her husband, Malcolm Russell, teaches art history and woodworking at the Middlesex School in Concord and at the DeCordova Museum.

The New England Document Conservation Center is a nonprofit production, consultation, and research service established by the New England Library Board in 1973 to help institutions safeguard valuable and unique library and archival materials from physical deterioration. The center operates a conservation workshop and an archival microfilm service.

Major Crime Unit Probes Murder

The state police major crime unit has joined in the investigation of the murder of David J. Brogan, 35, of Attleboro, whose murdered body was found last Wednesday afternoon in an abandoned barn on the former Shattuck Farm property in West Andover.

Investigators feel that Brogan may have been involved in organized crime activity.

It is also believed that the victim has no Andover connections, only that the murder took place here.

Brogan's car was found in the Sheraton Rolling Green parking lot Thursday. He had not been registered there, and had not been seen in the motel area.

The victim, self-employed , was found by a Methuen man who was trapping on the Shattuck property. A dog ran into the barn and the body was noticed. He was lying face down, some coins found around the floor, a pistol nearby along with a broken fishing club.

One pocket was turned out, the other pocket contained $149.

Police were working on the possibility the victim may have been involved in drug trafficking, or guns.

Brogan was involved in a July, 1977 plane crash off Cape Cod. Rescued by the Coast Guard, after his twin-engined Cessna went down, Brogan initially refused to be picked up then remained silent on a flight to Otis Air Force base.

Brogan was arrested with another man by Warwick, R.I., police in July on gun charges as they tried to board a flight to Fort Lauderdale. He told police there that he was unemployed.

Brogan and Agostinho Felix, 29 of New Bedford, were picked up at the Theodore Francis Greene Airport in Warwick last July 14 after they acted suspiciously at an Eastern Airlines terminal.

Police found a small arsenal of weapons in two suitcases the men carried, including a stolen, unlicensed .45 calibre pistol on Brogan and a gun, mace, a dagger, knife and sap gloves, used to protect knuckles when administering a beating, Warwick police detective Capt. Frank Ricci said.

The men had tried to board a plane without tickets although they had purchased some before under the ficticious names of Salone and Davis. Their alleged companions, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts, were on the plane but eluded police by leaving the flight in Atlanta.

The men posted bail but then failed to show up in Warwick for a Sept. 27 trial, Ricci said.

Electric Co. Offers 'Widgets'

For the second consecutive year, the Massachusetts Electric Company is offering "water widgets" as part of its efforts to promote energy conservation.

The widget is a dime-sized stainless steel disc which, when installed in a standard shower head, restricts water flow. Use of a widget can reduce by almost 50 percent the amount of water and the energy needed to heat that water.

On the average, a bath requires 10 gallons of hot water. Switching to a shower saves five gallons and installing a water widget saves an additional two and a half gallons.

Last year, Mass. Electric distributed more than 200,000 water widgets, including 35,000 widgets to state and federally subsidized housing units.

Mass. Electric and its affiliated companies have distributed more than 250,000 widgets to consumers since September 1977.

Free widgets are available now by writing to Massachusetts Electric, P.O. Box 5000, Worcester, MA 01613.

AMC Plans Autumn Walk

The Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club is offering a chance to see the last sights of Autumn. The walk is along the banks of Lake Cochickewick to Weir Hill on Oct. 29, Sunday, and will start at 1:30 p.m.

Featured on the walk will be the history of the Lake and the Hill, with Forbes Rockwell relating the stories of the past. Example, the Lake was reserved as an inland plantation in 1634 by the General Court of Massachusetts. The walk will go past the Stevens Mill Pond to Weir Hill. The views from the Hill are as close as Lawrence and as far away as Mt. Monadnock.

The walk is being led by Barbara Lybrand and Terri Anderson. Directions to the starting point at the Trustees of Reservations sign on Stevens St., from Merrimack College at Rtes. 125 and 114 go towards Haverhill on Rte. 125 past three traffic lights to bottom of hill and turn right at Pleasant St., then turn left onto Stevens St., passing the Mill Hill Pond condominiums on the left and Stevens Pond on the right. The starting point is just ahead on the right. The Andover Committee offers many thanks to participating and cooperating conservation groups for their parts in these monthly walks and hikes.

Job Corps

In fiscal year 1976, the Job Corps provided 43,400 young people with skill training, on-the-job experience, remedial education, social direction, and health services through 60 residential centers across the nation, according to the U.S. Labor Department's Employment Training Administration.

THE RESULT: A TANTALIZING PASTRY
"THE AEBLESKIVE PAN"

HOW TO MAKE AEBLESKIVERS

Although they are often called pancakes, aebleskivers are really a delicious dessert that is a cross between a dumpling, a doughnut and a muffin.

With your CAST IRON AEBLESKIVE PAN you can make this tantalizing pastry in 5 to 10 minutes right on top of your range. Heat the pan slightly; melt a little butter in each depression in the pan before filling with batter (see recipes below) and cook over low to medium heat until small bubbles appear. Use spoon or knitting needles to turn the aebleskiver over and cook the other side until golden brown.

For an extra taste treat, add a small slice of apple or a teaspoon of applesauce to the batter before it is turned. It will sink into the batter. Before serving sprinkle with confectioner's sugar and serve with butter, maple syrup, or jam. Better yet, serve a la mode.

STANDARD AEBLESKIVER

4 eggs, separated
1 tbsp sugar
2 cups cake flour
½ tsp salt
1 tsp baking powder
2 scant cups milk
¼ cup melted butter

Beat egg yolk; add sugar. Sift dry ingredients and add alternately with milk and butter. Beat egg whites until stiff, and fold in.

SOUR CREAM AEBLESKIVER

1 cup sour cream
2/3 cup milk
3 eggs, separated
2 tbsp butter, melted
2 cups sifted flour
2 tbsp sugar
1 tsp baking soda
½ tsp ground cardamon OR 1 tsp vanilla
¾ tsp salt

Combine sour cream, milk, egg yolks, and melted butter. Sift together dry ingredients. Make a well in center of the dry ingredients and pour in liquid mixture. Stir until well blended. Last, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Completes Program At Babson

Ms. Wendy Palmer of 47 Royal Crest Drive in North Andover, an employee of Instrumentation Laboratory, Inc. in Wilmington, has completed a program in Babson College's School of Continuing Management Education. The program is entitled, "Management Education for Women."

The program, offered since 1973, has successfully provided more than 400 women the opportunity to enhance their management effectiveness. Designed to help overcome the shortage of women qualified for management positions, the program helps women broaden and update their knowledge of present-day management techniques, functions, and concepts.

The program enables participants to develop the ability to examine and solve management problems and to evaluate their own capabilities and develop as competent managers.

PREPARATION
It Makes The Difference!

In this modern day and age, to speak of old fashioned ways of doing things can cause raised eyebrows and patronizing shoulder shrugs. BUT in operating a first rate Delicatessen, tried and true methods of food preparation often more costly, more time consuming are the only way to go. The taste of food at Towne Deli tells you why.

All potato salads, for instance, are not deserving of the name. Ours is because it is made the old fashioned way: The potatoes are boiled with the skin on, they are peeled and the ingredients added while they are still warm. Ah! Then comes the lip smacking difference . . . the taste!

Our preparation cook takes the same methodical steps in preparing our famous Cole slaw and homemade soups. They, too, are exceptional. Your taste-experience will soon tell you that they are not prepared in restaurants as they are at Towne Deli.

It's like everything we do — not the short-cut way but the only right way. No wonder so many of our customers are "hooked" on Towne Deli.

Historic Home Rezoned

In return for business zone status for his building at 23 Central St., Atty. Reginal L. Marden promised Town Meeting he would preserve the historic building as a landmark, thing of beauty, and buffer against further encroachment of business into the Central Street-Brook Street neighborhoods.

Marden had already received a nod of approval from the selectmen and finance committee, and a letter from the chairman of the Historical Commission gave that group's unanimous approval of the move as "insurance" of the Jonathan Swift House's historical value.

Marden said the house, built in 1795 by Jonathan Swift, had subsequently served as the Andover Post Office and assorted other uses until a 1952 variance made it into a two-family house.

The zoning amendment granted Tuesday by a 378 to 2 vote, will allow the building to be used either as his law offices, or as a single family house.

Marden said the building has eight fireplaces, large plank floors, peg construction in the roof and rafters. He said restoration will have to be done to preserve parts of the building, but any major architectural features will be retained, and new parking would be added at the rear of the building.

Town Meeting Tuesday night also may finally have laid to rest a long history of woes with Castle Heights Road. The voters almost unanimously voted to appropriate $10,000 in improvements to Castle Heights and Joyce Terrace, which were taken by the town by eminient domain after the Spring Town Meeting.

The owners of the property along the roadway will also be assessed $10,000 for the project.

Atty. Edward Bodenrader, 11 Castle Heights, was the lone speaker against the move, claiming the road was never laid out properly paved and he questioned the legality of the town taking it over, then assessing residents to make improvements.

Marion Hindman, 10 Castle Heights, however, urged passage of the measure. She said they had lived on the road with "all kinds of ruts and stones," and that she's had it paved "by begging to town officials so we could get up the road."

"I want this passed," she said, "so we won't have to keep on begging."

As it is now, she went on, "we can't walk on it, ride on it or have people come up on it."

Dan Frishman added that all 11 abutters, except Bodenrader, favored the article.

In still other action Tuesday, Town Meeting increased the size of the Zoning Board of Appeals from three members to five, a request made because of the increased load on the board," approved payment of sick leave benefits to teacher Jean Finn for a previous year, approved an annual financial audit of the town, and voted to ask Andover's state representative to sponsor legislation which would require Essex Agriculatural and Technical Institute to apportion costs to the county's communities on the basis of their enrollments.

This was one of the ways, said FinCom's Ruth Dunbar, that the town could effect some tax savings. She said Andover is now charged $80,000 a year more than it would be it if were charged on a proportional student basis, as with the Greater Lawrence Voke School.

The Andover West Junior High soccer team is doing very well this year, under the coaching of Mr. Nichols. With a 7-0 record, the team hopes to remain undefeated for the rest of the season. In our game against Lynnfield, the score was 7-2 in our favor. Scoring for West were: Ken Heydt (2), Ian Yates (2), Dan Roberts, Mark Fitzpatrick, and Jeff Parker. Also playing well this season are Jon Cohen, Gary Forbes and Adam Roberts.

In field lhockey, our team played East last Thursday. West lost, 2-0. Tri-captains of the team are Roberta Borruso, Mary Wiseman, and Elise Balbone.

On the student government side of things, a lot is going on. All this week student government cards and pens have been on sale. So far, the sales have been going great, and we hope they will get even better.

Our resident talent scout, Mrs. Bernardin, has begun work on our annual school production. Although she hasn't chosen the play, she does hope it will involve a large cast.

On Tuesday, Oct. 17, the eigth and ninth grades had a special treat. The Northeastern Navy Band came to West to give us a concert. The concert was terrific, and the audience went wild. Highlights of the show included songs from today and from the fifties. Performing one of the fifties numbers was "The Big Bopper," a greaser from the fifties.

Our next all school dance will be held on Oct. 27. The theme, of course, is "Halloween."

The Skywalk at the Prudential Tower in Boston is open Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 11 p.m; Friday and Saturday, 9 a.m. till midnight and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Children's Theater

The Boston Children's Theater opens its twenty eighth season with the production "The Wonderful Tang" at New England Life Hall. Performances are scheduled for Saturdays, Oct. 28 and Nov. 4 at 2 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 5 at 3 p.m.

Jeanne Nelson Armin of Cohasset will direct a cast of youngsters chosen from the theater's creative drama classes, with settings and lighting by Kim Sammis.

E.J.H. Happenings

By Karen Jo Giammusso

Everyone at East Junior High is proud of the athletic teams who have all been turning in winning performances.

Last Wednesday the East Junior High eigth eigth grade football team defeated Methuen East by a score of 8-6. Bill Feeney scored the touchdown and Mike Lucey scored the extra points. Defensive standouts were Kris Williams and Fred LeMay.

East's freshman football team defeated Chelmsford-Parker by a score of 15-6. John Ingemi scored two touchdowns and a two-point conversion for a total of 14 points while Bill Caseldon kicked the extra point. An outstanding game was turned in by Craig Hyslip, Mike White, Tim Grams and Gary Milne.

Friday of this week East's freshman will play Lawrence at home.

The girls' field hockey team has also turned in victories. They beat arch-rival West with a score of 2-0. Patty McGann made the first goal with an assist by Rachel Petrella. Amy Starensier scored the second goal with assists by Julie Churbuck and Beth Whitworth. The girls beat Chelmsford-McCarthy 2-1. The first goal was scored by Amy Starensier with an assist by Jane Oskar. The second goal was scored by Rachel Petrella with assists by Jennifer Looney and Kate Seeley. Extremely strong defensively were Julie Barry and Pam Finn.

The entire seventh grade went on a field trip to the Museum of Science last Friday. The trip was highlighted by a visit to the planetarium.

The eigth grade Spanish class enjoyed a movie in Beverly this past week. The movie was all in Spanish.

Plans for the annual yearbook have begun. Editor this year is Kate Seeley, assisted by Robin Brooks.

The entire ninth grade enjoyed an afternoon of speakers last Friday. Arranged by Miss Harms, the career specialist, the students heard about careers in law, manufacturing, air traffic control, psychology, physiology, engineering, banking and politics. The students were able to ask questions of the speakers. One point of information noted was that all these fields are now equally available to men and women.

Art Exhibit By Andover Native

On Oct. 22, an exhibition of paintings and drawings by Calvin Brown opened at the Andover Gallery of Fine Art, 91 North Main St. The showing of approximately 20 pieces will remain on view through Nov. 9. Gallery hours are 9-5, Tuesday-Saturday, and 2-5 Sundays.

Brown, born in 1952, was raised in Andover. He has been studying art intensively since his early teens. At sixteen he began painting under Andover artist David Sullivan and Rockport artist John Terelak.

After graduating high school, Brown attended Cooper Union in New York City, receiving his B.F.A. in 1974. He returned to Andover that year and continued to paint while working at the Addison Gallery at Phillips Academy.

In 1976 Brown entered graduate school and working with Al Held and John Walker, he received his Master's degree from Yale University in 1978.

Inviting Membership

Friends Of Library Seek Members

The Friends of Memorial Hall Library of Andover have launched their annual membership drive which will incude the mailing of membership renewals and invitations to over 700 families in the community. Additional membership forms may be obtained at the library.

The aim of the group is to provide services and purchase items which are not financially possible within the yearly budget of the library. During the past year, funds from the Friends made possible the purchase of rocking chairs and additional films, Getting Better Boxes and Travel Kits for the Children's Room, and a slide projector and Museum of Science Family Pass.

Special events sponsored by the Friends include an annual winter party, which last year featured a performance by the Kitchen Sink Mime Theater, musical selections by the Phillips Academy Brass Ensemble and a Chanukah candlelighting ceremony conducted by eigth grade students from Temple Emanuel. In addition, they sponsored the highly successful Foreign Film Festival.

The in-library volunteer program provides clerical assistance such as filing, shelving, and related services as well as work on the inter-library loan program. Ongoing activities coordinated by the Friends include preparing a newsletter for its membership, delivery of books to shutins, a nursing home movie program, and an annual used book sale held in conjunction with Andover's Bazaar Days. All profits from this sale are used for the benefit of the library.

In addition, families not meeting this criteria but with other special hardship conditions due to unusuallyy high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casually losses are urged to apply. Further, children having parents or guardians who become unemployed are eligible for free or reduced price meals or for free milk during the period of unemployment, provided that the loss of income causes the family income during the period of unemployment to be within the eligibility criteria. Should your income or family size change, contact the approving official. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for free milk and free meals or reduced price meals regardless of your family income. If you have such children living with you and wish to apply for such milks and meals for them please file a separate application for each child and indicate amount of State support only as income.

The policy also provides that there will be no overt identification and/or discrimination against any child because of his race, sex, color, national origin, in the operation of the child feeding program.

Under the provision of the policy the School Principal will review all applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official he mayy wish to discuss the decision with the approving official on an informal basis or make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision to the Superintendent of Schools.

Ronald L. Lindquist

Lindquist Named Manager

Western Electric has recently named Ronald L. Lindquist as Manager of Industrial and Labor Relations at the Merrimack Valley Works. Lindquist replaces Harry E. Youngman who became Manager of Production Management and Manufacturing — Transmission Equipment.

Lindquist assumed his post Sept. 1. He is responsible for personnel, public relations, security, and labor relations for the Merrimack Valley Works which employs over 7,000 people.

Born in Illinois in 1936, Ronald Lindquist received his B.S. degree (1956) in Business Management and Marketing from the University of Colorado, and his M.S. degree (1964) in Business Administration from New York University.

Lindquist began his career with Western Electric in 1956 as a staff trainee at the Hawthorne Works in Chicago. Following three years of service in the U.S. Air Force, Lindquist returned to Western Electric's Corporate Headquarters in New York.

After a two-year assignment at the Houston, Texas service center, Lindquist moved to the Merrimack Valley in 1967. During his 11 years at the Merrimack Valley Works, Lindquist's responsibilities have included production control, personnel, manufacturing shops, and works service.

Lindquist, his wife, and four sons live in Andover. He has been an active member of the Andover Chamber of Commerce, and a fund raiser for the Bon Secours Hospital and the North Andover YMCA. He is currently chairman, manufacturing division, of the 1978 Merrimack Valley United Fund campaign, and a member of the National Alliance of Businessmen Advisory Board. Lindquist was a little League baseball coach and manager for seven years, and was the 1975 Alan B. Rogers Memorial Golf Champion.

Obituary...

GREG A. SERIO

Sixteen-year-old Greg A. Serio discovered he was suffering from luekemia two years ago, but refused to let it change his life.

"He kept delivering papers every chance he could get and played baseball after school," said his mother, Mrs. Lillian Serio. "He really tried to lead a normal life."

"For the last two weeks he was in and out of the hospital, but he didn't stop delivering papers," she continued. "He didn't do it too frequently in the last couple of weeks, but he did it whenever he could."

A former Eagle-Tribune Newsboy of the Month and an outstanding area athlete, Serio died Friday of luekemia at Children's Hospital, Boston.

Born in North Andover on September 7, 1962, Serio was a junior at Central Catholic High School, Lawrence, where he participated in track and baseball.

An outstanding athlete, he was named to the Greater Lawrence All-Star baseball team for three years while in the North Andover Babe Ruth League. Serio was also interested in tennis and golf.

An altar boy at St. Michael's Church for many years, he was also involved in Cub Scouts. Serio carried the Eagle-Tribune for six years and was named Newsboy of the Month in July, 1977. He had hoped to buy a boat with the money he was saving and was also planning to attend college.

He is survived by his parents, Frank Jr. and Lillian (Pomerleau) Serio; three sisters, Lynne F. Serio, Linda J., wife of Gregory S. Hyatt of Methuen, Laureen R. Serio; paternal grandparents, Frank and Teresa (Gagliano) Serio Sr., of Lawrence; maternal grandparents, Leo and Blanche (Pickard) Pomerleau of North Andover.

A mass of resurrection was concelebrated Tuesday at 11 a.m. in St. Michael's Church. Burial was in Ridgewood Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Jimmy Fund, 44 Binney St., Boston, Ma., 02115.

Treble Chorus Parents Meet

With the membership of the Treble Chorus growing to 52, and a large waiting list, the board of the North Reading Choral Society is calling an information meeting for parents on Nov. 1, at 8 p.m. in the L.G.R. at North Reading Junior High.

Any person interested in assisting with the development of the society and the further artistic growth of North Reading and surrounding communities is invited to join the parents in meeting the board and music director, Marie Stultz. Included in the evening's discussion will be a review of society policies and procedures, fund-raising, and future plans.

The most important topic for disucssion will be fund-raising. Rick Isaacs, of Andover, will lead the discussion and outline the fund-raising plans for ccapital desperately needed to run this large and active organization.

Some people once believed that they could make it rain by getting a black cat to swim across a stream.

Industrial Course Is Offered

The Greater Lawrence Vocational Technical High School will offer an Industrial Entry Program for students in the Greater Lawrence area.

The purpose of the program is to afford girls and boys the opportunity of exploring occupational fields that may meet the interest of students according to William J. Igoe, Vocational councelor for the Andover public schools.

Andover students, grade 7 through 12, will have the opportunity to enroll in three courses of their choice. Each course is offered twice a week for a period of six weeks.

The program will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays 3:15 p.m. to 5:15 p.m. beginning on Nov. 6. Courses being offered in the program are: appliance repair, autobody, automotive, beauty and charm, clothing, commercial art, computer programming, culinary art, distributive education, electrical, electronics, industrial electronic techniques, machine shop, metal fabrication, painting and decorating, radio and T.V. repair repair, small engine repair and typing.

Frank Foucher, coordinator of Continuing Studies at the Voke School will be in charge of the program. Studentss may obtain their applications from the guidance staff at East and West Junior High and from Andover High School. Application deadline is Friday, Nov. 3. Bus transportation will be provided by the Voke School.

Winter Squash

Pumpkin and winter squash are members of the same family and differ from summer squash in that they are eaten when fully ripe: the seeds are mature and the rind is hard and tough.

The king-size greenish blue skinned Hubbard is perhaps the most well known winter squash, but also popular are the smaller tan-skinned butternut, the green acorn and buttercup, the golden delicious and the orange, green and white skinned Turk's turban squash.

Completes Recruit Training

Marine Private Stephen J. Dubois, son of Gerard A. and Eileen M. Dubois of 6 Shawsheen Road, Andover, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the nine-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1977 graduate of Andover High School, he joined the Marine Corps in January, 1978.

Beekeeping

Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary is offering a course for the prospective beekeeper on the hobby of beekeeping. Fall is the time to harvest the honey, prepare the hive for winter and plan for the next season. The biology of the honeybee will be discussed as well as all the practical information a beekeeper needs. For more information, call or write the Sanctuary office.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beattie

Beattie - Young

At home in Lawrence, are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beattie, who were married September 23 at the Unitarian-Universalist Church in Andover.

The bride is the former Gretchen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Young, 36 Bellevue Road, Andover. The groom is the son of Mrs. Agnes Beattie of Hampton, N.H., and Mr. James Beattie of Lawrence.

Richard Woodman of Reading officiated at the 11 a.m. service, and a reception followed at DiBurro's Restaurant.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of Quiana with silk Venice motifs on the bodice and neck, full bishop sleeves and cathedral train. She also wore a silk Venice cap with an illusion veil, and carried a cascade bouquet of roses, stephanotis, Fuji mums and baby's breath.

Merle Young attended her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Denise Dargie, Brenda Barron and Mary Tetreault, all of Andover, and Cheryl Pritchard of Methuen. Gretchen Dixon of Oceanside, Calif., was flower girl.

Kenneth Jolly of Andover served as best mann, and ushers were David Tetreault and Robert Lucy of Andover, Gifford Wilcox of North Andover and John Belanger of Londonderry, N.H.

The new Mrs. Beattie attended Andover schools and is employed by the Prudential Insurance Co. Her husband who also attended Andover schools, works for the Andover Housing Authority.

They took their wedding trip to Europe.

Aerobic Dancing To Begin

Two localites, Patty Anderson and Anita McDuffie, both of Andover, will instruct classes in Aerobic Dancing, at South Church on Central Street in Andover. Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday, 9 to 10 a.m.; Wednesday and Friday, 9 to 10 a.m.; Monday and Wednesday evenings, 7 to 8 p.m. Classes will begin on Oct. 30 and run for seven weeks.

Aerobic Dancing was originated by Jacki Sorensen, a professional dancer and choreographer, and clinician for the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, as a fun means to cardiovascular fitness. Mrs. Sorensen choreographs all dances to the mood of the music, which might be cha-cha, rock, folk, charleston and many others. Using combinations of hopping, walking, jogging, bending and stretching, the dances are simple enough for the non-dancer but challenging enough for all to enjoy.

Each class begins with a 5-minute warmup dance to prepare the participants for the more vigorous dances to follow, and ends with a cooldown dance to bring back the heart rate within normal range.

Patty Anderson, for 7 years a resident of Andover, has taught physical education, dance and gymnastics in the Andover Schools, Phillips Academy and the Chelmsford Schools, She has also taught dance in the Andover Evening Study Program and has been active in the Andover Community Theatre (ACT) as well as other area theatre groups. Patty resides with her husband, Peter and son Jeremy, on Enmore Street.

Anita McDuffie, also a resident of Andover for eight years with her husband, Dan and children, Danny, Christina and Loretta, was the director of the Andover Community Theatre (ACT) first production, "George Washington Slept Here." She was music director of numerous other shows such as "Man of LaMancha," "Sound of Music," "Cabaret" and "Anything Goes" for community theatre groups in Reading, Danvers and Winthrop.

Gardeners Prepare Pumpkins

The Village Garden Club's Garden Therapy Committee enjoyed an early Halloween treat this year with the special needs children of West Elementary School.

Committee members arrived at school with a large supply of pumpkins and helped the children scoop them out and carve them into jack-o-lanterns.

Committee members who assisted in this project were Cynthis Madden, Andria Kalil, Sue Williams, Barbara Lascher, Marilyn Carriere and Cath Dymek, group chairman.

The Garden Therapy Committee meets several times throughout the year with Andover's handicapped children.

Lecture

Eleanor DeLorme, an authority on French decorative arts, is giving a special illustrated lecture at the Peabody Museum of Salem on Friday evening, Nov. 3 at 8:30 p.m. She will concentrate particularlyy on the timefromLouis XVI to the Empire. This is the era when the Roux family, whose ship portraits are currently on exhibit at the Museum, was painting.

Mrs. DeLorme points out, however, that the Roux lived in Marseille and court fashions filtered slowly to the provinces. But even Marseille homes must have been influenced by the delicate lines of the neo-classicism of Louis XVI's court and later by the more dramatic lines of the Empire period. The fragile procelains produced by the Sevres factory became France's pride. Eventually, the exquisite workmanship and graceful lines of France's decorative arts from this period influenced the arts of countries as far away as America.

Graduates

Miss Mary Lou Sullivan of Andover has graduated from the Katharine Gibbs School in Boston, where she completed the One-Year Secretarial Program.

Mrs. Philip M. Spofford

Spofford - Salter

Robin L. Salter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elden R. Salter, 26 High St., Andover, became the bride Sept. 30 of Philip M. Spofford. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland E. Spofford of Georgetown.

The Rev. David Hollenbeck officiated at the 5 o'clock service at the Ballard Vale United Church, and a reception followed at DiBurro's Restaurant.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chiffon gown with Venice lace trimming the bodice and cuffs and sprinkled with pearls. She wore a matching picture hat with a cluster of flowers on the side of the brim, and carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses.

Nancy Salter attended her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Patricia Caterino, Joanne O'Brien and Paula Donovan. Roland E. Spofford, Jr., was his brother's best man, and ushers included Scott Cote, Peter Gilmartin and Barry Flanders.

The new Mrs. Spofford, a graduate of Andover High, is a treasurer's clerk for the Town of Andover while her husband, a graduate of Northern Essex, is a manager trainee for the BayBank Merrimack Valley.

Following a wedding trip to Montreal, they are making their home in Haverhill.

Selected For School Honors

Katharine Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman G. Stephens of 13 Summer St., Andover, has been selected to be a resident of La Casa Hispanica at Emma Willard School, Troy, N.Y., this year. Residents of La Casa speak only in Spanish while in the house, receive credit for their experiences, and participate in a variety of activities planned to increase their fluency in the language.

Recently Kathy was one of the hostesses at La Casa Hispanica for a luncheon which the students planned, prepared, and served to a group of Emma Willard alumnae who had returned to attend Executive Committee meetings and fundraising workshops on the Troy campus.

Cosmic Art

The forces of nature and the landscapes of distant worlds are dramatically depicted in a new exhibition, "Cosmic Art," at Boston's Museum of Science.

Works by Leonardo Nierman and Jorge Espinosa, both natives of Mexico City, are displayed together in the Museum's Peabody Gallery Oct. 27 through Jan. 7.

Mrs. P. Stephen Vail

Vail - Forsyth

Gail Leslie Forsyth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Forsyth of Groveland, became the bride September 16 of P. Stephen Vail of Andover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Vail, 9 Elysian Drive.

The Reverends Ralph W. Lehman Becker and Gayle K. Lehman-Becker officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony at the Unitarian-Universalist Church here, before an altar decorated with peach gladioli, white Fuji mums and bronze pompons. Ivar Sjostrom, organist, and Susan Johnson of Hartford, Conn., on the oboe, provided wedding music from Handel's "Water Music."

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a princess-style gown she had made in candlelight polyester blend, with long, full sleeves gathered at the wrist, a dropped waist and full skirt. She wore her mother's veil of heirloom Venetian rose pointe lace, and carried a boquet of three white Fuji mums with trailing ivy.

Martha Jean Forsyth of Groveland attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a gown also made by the bride. In peach leno-weave over taffeta, it featured short-sleeves, scoop neck and empire waist with a bronze satin bow. She wore a headpiece consisting of two barrettes with yellow daisies, and carried one bronze Fuji mum with yellow daisy poms and ivy.

Mrs. Forsyth chose a long-sleeved gown of bittersweet knit with a V-neck and empire waist for her daughter's wedding, and a corsage of three small, peach roses. The groom's mother wore a long-sleeved gown of dusty rose Quiana, and a pink Cymbidium orchid.

Kane Pillsbury of Bethlehem, Pa., served as best man, and ushers were Nancy L. Forsyth of Groveland, the bride's sister, and David C. Forsyth of Groveland her brother.

The groom's sister, Susan Vail, presided at the guest book.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony, with music provided by Joseph Leary of Lynn and his string quartet. The couple took a wedding trip to Newport, R.I., and they are now at home in Woburn.

The new Mrs. Vail, a graduate of Pentucket High School and Brown University, teaches French in Beverly elementary schools and is doing graduate work in French at Rivier College, Nashua, N.H.

Her husband, a graduate of Andover High School, attends Lowell University, and is a computer test technician for Compugraphic in Wilmington.

At Lake Forest

Christian Science Lecture

That we should experience freedom from the oppression of materiality, just as the Israelites fled from Egyptian rule lunder Moses' leadership, is the theme of a free public lecture on Christian Science to be given on Driday, Nov. 3, at 8 p.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 278 North Main St., Andover. The lecture is entitled "Let My People Go." All are invited to attend.

The lecturer is Nathaniel Ridgway White, C.S., of Palm Beach, Florida, a former economic specialist and Business and Financial Editor of The Christian Science Monitor. His work on the Monitor staff took him to the British Isles, Continental Europe and the Soviet Union, and won four awards for the international newspaper.

Mr. White is currently a Christian Science practitioner and a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship in Boston. He will be lecturing throughout the United States this year.

The lecture includes illustrations of how several people claimed their God-given freedom from the modern-day enslavements of drugs and alcoholism and were physically healed.

In 1728, potatoes were outlawed in Scotland because they were not mentioned in the Bible.

Christmas Fair Planned At Vale

The Ballardvale United Church will hold its annual Christmas Fair on Friday, Dec. 1 and Saturday, Dec. 2. Friday the fair will be in progress from 4:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

One of the big attractions of the fair when the doors open on Friday is the Snack Bar. Under the superision of John and Lorna McIntyre, they will be offering fish chowder, along with other delectable delights for a leisurely Friday night supper at old fashion prices.

On Saturday the doors will open at 10 a.m. and close at 4 p.m. Once again, there will be a variety of gifts and decorations to choose from, including home baked pies and cakes as well as homemade candy. Table chairmen for this year's fair include, Helen Webb and Grace Nicoll, gifts, novelties; and christmas decorations; Diane Damon, kints; Millie Davidson, bakery; Elaine Peterson, candy; Carol Livingston, plants; Hazel Millegan, aprons; Edna McIntyre and Doris Smith, attic treasures; and Gail and Don Ward, proprietors for the country store.

A National Highway Traffic Safety Administration report estimates that 200,000 lives have been saved since the Safety Act of 1966, which began the chain of safety improvements in our passenger cars.

Examining Auction Items

St. Augustine's Guild members check over some of the items which will be offered at the Silent Auction scheduled for Nov. 9 at the school hall. From left, Sister Rita, S.N.D., Maxine Grogan, Marg Gilmartin and Sharon Ristuccia.

Guild Plans For Silent Auction

Members of St. Augustine's School Guild have been busy planning and preparing for this year's Silent Auction to be held in the school hall on Thursday, Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

There are many articles to be auctioned including items made by guild members at recent workshops coordinated by Mary Shepard.

Raffles will include a Nativity Set, a turkey with all-the-fixin's, a copper enameled plaque by Sr. Madeline, a basket of mixed homemade candies, a large pinecone wreath and a handmade afghan.

An addition this year will be a "Country Kitchen Table" under the guidance of Maxine Grogan.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by the eighth grade class.

Chairpersons for the coming event are Mary Gilmartin and Sharon Ristuccia and a committee from grades two and five. The public is invited.

Craftsmen To Exhibit At Fair

The Women's-Evening circle of the West Parish Church, Andover, is sponsoring a Crafts Fair again this fall to be held on Saturday, Nov. 4, at the church. At least 50 area craftsmen and artists will be exhibiting their works.

New Crafts displayed this year will include scrimshaw, leaded glass, driftwood creations, fabric pictures, dried flower arrangements, calico Christmas decorations, tole painting, quilts, and woodenware. Old favorites will include teddy bears, handmade dolls, sterling silver and gold jewelry, herb crafts, pottery, macarame, woodworking, and Christmas decorations and wreaths.

A Country Store managed by Sarah Nelson will feature jellies, pickles, baked beans and other foodstuffs. Palla Schreurs is in charge of the Knitting table and Jessie Duston will have an assortment of gifts for sale at the Gift table.

A luncheon will be served with Eda Warwick in charge assisted by Circle members. Dot Gulezian will be offering morning coffee to the early browsers. A selection of baked goods will be available at the Bakery table managed by Betty Jordan and Eleanor Sribner.

General chairperson for the fair is Marge Newton. Publicity is being handled by Laura Occhipinti. The Fair will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ham, Bean Supper

The men and women of the Free Christian Church, 31 Elm St., Andover will hold a Ham and Bean Supper, Saturday, Oct. 25, from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets are available at the church office or from Ina Petrie. All proceeds will go to the church repair fund.

Confirmation Enrollment

Two hundred and thirty-four candidates for the sacrament of Confirmation will be formally enrolled in the program at St. Augustine's at the 11:15 a.m. Masses on Oct. 29 and Nov. 5.

Those who are in Grade 9 or older are eligible to be in the progrm and will be confirmed in the Spring of 1980.

If anyone desires to enroll who is not presently assigned to a class, he or she may telephone the CCD office. Registrations for this year's group will not be accepted after Nov. 4.

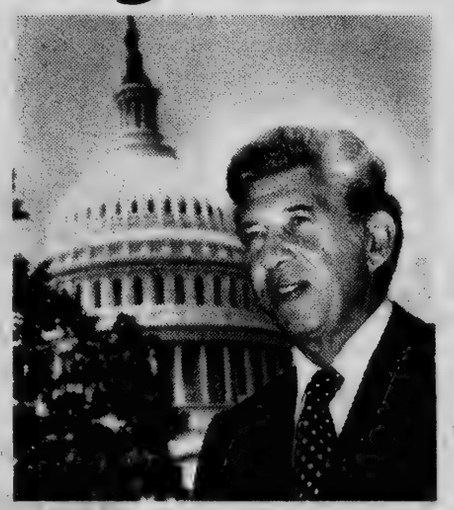
Nick Mavroules has the experience, ability and know-how to get the job done in Congress.

When it comes to understanding the complex and often unique problems facing the cities and towns of the 6th District, Nick Mavroules has a clear advantage.

As Mayor of the District's second largest city for the past eleven years, Nick Mavroules has dealt with those problems day after day... and he's dealt with them successfully.

Take a look at his city's employment growth rate during his six terms as Mayor... best among all cities in the District with a population over 30,000, and 2½ times that of the number two community.

Take a look at the new schools he's built, the beginnings of a dynamic downtown revitalization, the elderly services program described as the state's best.



Then, take a look at his city's tax rate... the 4th lowest full value tax rate among all cities in Massachusetts.

Clearly, Nick Mavroules knows how to get the job done... but not at the expense of the taxpayer.

The job Nick Mavroules has done on the local government level, he can do at the Federal level... for the benefit of every city and town in the 6th District.

This year, you can vote for a promise... or you can vote for a man who's proven that he can get the job done.

Because it's about time Congress heard your voice for a change.

And he needs your vote to get there.

On Nov.7th let your voice be heard.

For The Flower Table

Day Of Reflection At Center

Fr. Stephen C. Doyle, the internationally known Biblical scholar, will be the guest lecturer at A Day of Scriptural Reflection based on the Book of Revelation presented by the Franciscan Friars of the Christian Formation Center, River Road, Andover on Saturday, Nov. 11 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Fr. Doyle will lecture both in the morning and afternoon, and will celebrade liturgy. The day will include a dinner and times for discussion and reflection.

Fr. Doyle, a recognized scriptural scholar, has lectured extensively throughout the U.S. and Canada, as well as South America and Ireland. He is the author of 'Covenant Renewal in Religious Life' plus numerous other articles, reviews, and tapes. Currently Professor of Sacred Scripture and Biblical Preaching at Pope John XXIII National Seminary in Weston, Stephen Doyle is also a member of the faculty of Emmanuel College in Boston. He holds degrees in Theology from Catholic University of America and in Sacred Scripture from the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome.

All registrations must be made by Nov. 9. For information on registrations contact the Christian Formation Center.

Volunteers Needed

The Division of Rehabilitation Services of Lawrence General Hospital is a vital part of the community serving the needs of individuals with physical, mental, social and educational disabilities.

Volunteers are invaluable to the program. Working hours, convenient to the volunteer, are easily arranged. Volunteers are needed as basic reading and math tutors, activity aides, personal development assistants, arts and crafts instructors, recreation aides and companions. Training and supervision of volunteers is provided.

For further information or an appointment to visit the facility contact: Judy Kaplan, Tuesday or Thursday, 9-12 at the Division facility, 32-34 Haverhill St., Lawrence.

UNICEF Drive

Once again, the young people in your neighborhood may have more than their trick-or-treat bags with them on Halloween. Many of the children in Andover will be participating in the annual UNICEF campaign sponsored by their respective church schools. It is hoped that residents will support the work that is being done by UNICEF for those less fortunate around the world.

Shawsheen Residents Get Water Lines Unanimously

The Andover Townsman
The Second Front Page
OCTOBER 26, 1978

Shawsheen residents will get some relief from water quality problems which have plagued the area for over a year.

Town meeting Monday night unanimously approved a $510,000 expenditure for installing new water mains in the Village area, although it took three votes — all unanimous — to get the matter legally accomplished.

The Monday night session, attended by 726 voters, also approved a new bylaw allowing the stabling of horses for personal recreation use, discontinued some portions of roads as public ways, established a definition of lot size and rejected a gift of an Art Deco Muse.

There was no problem providing relief and rewarding the patience of Shawsheen residents and their problems with regard to dirty water. James Sellars, a Shawsheen resident and officer of the Friends of Shawsheen association, showed the audience a sample of the water which has been coming through the pipes for the past year and a half. The thick brown sample was convincing to the point that when the vote was taken, there was no objections, the matter being approved 539-0.

The residents, who allowed postponement of pipe replacement at the annual town meeting in April in order to permit another pipe cleaning method to be used, were thanked by both DPW Director Robert E. McQuade and Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark for their patience over the many months.

Due to the proposal being bonded, the article had to be reconsidered twice, once to insert streets not mentioned in the initial presentation and the second time to insert proper wording. Both times, the voters afforded unanimous approval.

The new horse-stabling bylaw would permit equine owners to continue to maintain the animals on their property, provided it is only for personal, recreational use and not for profit, or business.

The bylaw is a result of a complaint regarding a Jenkins road operation. Selectmen asked the building inspector to check into the bylaws and enforce the regulations as on the books at present. It was determined, after a survey, that up to 60 horse-owners in Andover could be in violation of current regulations.

With approval Tuesday night and subsequent approval of the attorney general's office, horse-owners will be able to maintain their animals by obtaining a permit from the board of appeals, which Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said should be no problem. The bylaw, Clark said, is designed to permit the continued stabling of horses by residents, "for their own enjoyment."

Despite some opposition from Sidney P. Whitee, the bylaw was 489-83.

The planning board proposal to define lot area also passed, 258-77, despite some opposition from retired Building Inspector Arthur Peatman.

The definition includes at least 90 per cent of the lot area required for zoning compliance to land other than that under any waterbody, or bog, swamp, wet meadow, or marsh.

Peatman objected based on the requirement for more inspection and resulting in time consuming and expensive procedures which would be passed on to the consumer.

He said increased restrictions on land in Andover are creating additional costs and asked how "our children and grandchildren going to acquire land here, with all these restrictions."

Mrs. Margaret Keck of the planning board and Selectman Susan T. Poore stressed the need for such definition in order to provide the town with proper tools to control growth in the community.

Portions of Sunset Rock Road and Tucker Road will remain open, but three other streets will be eliminated in part as public ways through action taken Monday.

Portions of Prospect Road, Wood Hill Road and Rocky Hill Road will be abandoned by the town as public ways, but sufficient objection was raised to the other two streets to prevent them from falling into the same category.

DPW Director Robert E. McQuade said the effort to abandon the streets as public ways was to prevent the area from being developed and then having the town be liable for paving and putting in new roads and utilities.

Abbot Proposal Defeated; P.A. Examines Next Step

Phillips Academy officials are reassessing their position with regard to the disposal of the Abbot Academy campus, following town meeting defeat of a proposal to develop the property as a retirement community.

Tuesday night the academy failed to obtain the two-thirds vote needed on the Abbot campus — to be developed by Life-Care Services of Iowa — and which would have produced tax revenue for the town.

Headmaster Theodore R. Sizer said after the meeting that the trustees would have to set down and examine the vote. There is the possibility that the Life Care proposal may reappear at a subsequent town meeting, following some refinement of plans and an educational program to inform the community.

Atty. Robert S. Zollner, counsel for the academy and Life-Care, informed the meeting of the plan which would permit the proponent to develop the former Abbot campus into a retirement community, with a nursing home as part of the overall complex.

Residents of the complex would pay an initial entrance fee of from $20,000 to $40,000, plus $500 a month maintenance for their units. Aesthetically, the campus would remain pretty much as it currently appears.

Emily Grotta of Locke street, an opponent of the proposal, described it as one for the rich, referring to the entrance fee and the monthly maintenance costs. She also questioned the financial status of the Life Care company asking, if the proposal did not succeed, would the town be responsible for the elderly citizens there.

Atty. Zollner explained that the proposal is not for the rich, and proceeded to explain the cost of houses in Andover. When people retire and sell their property at prices as currently advertised, there is sufficient financial basis to obtain one of the units in the Life Care facility, Zollner explained.

William Doherty, an abutter of the campus, said that he objected to the proposal based on the impact of 200 people, plus maintenance workers which would be brought on the property. He felt that the area could be developed into single family housing, with the price range to be in the $200,000 per dwelling category.

The proposal as presented at town meeting would have permitted the matter to go to the zoning board of appeals for approval, a matter which Paul W. Cronin of Punchard Avenue objected to. Cronin said he would not like to see town meeting give up its rights to act on such a matter and turning it over to five individuals.

Cronin also asked what kind of a "deal" was being made on taxes to be paid to the town. Zollner said there had been no "deal" and that as best could be estimated at this time, there would be about $200,000 to $220,000 in tax revenue for the town.

Cronin concurred with a previous speaker in asking the voters to remember that a certificate of need to be issued by the state for the nursing home portion of the project, would effect the number of nursing home beds allowed in the entire Merrimack Valley area.

Cronin also eluded to a "60 Minutes" TV program which was critical of similar Life Care facilities in other parts of the country, indicating he did not hold the Andover proponent in that category, but such information was something to think about when considering the matter.

While proponents indicated there would be no increase in municipal services, such as utility lines, etc., opponents disagreed. Also mentioned by the opponents was possible traffic problems and also a desire to see what the proposed buildings would look like when the project was finished.

Selectmen, Finance Committee and Planning board approval was accorded the proposal, but the voters ultimately defeated the article, which had a majority vote of 231-168, but needed 266 yes votes to meet the two-thirds vote requirement.

Art Rejected

Tim Driscoll of Morton street proposed the town appropriate $2,500 for the cost of transporting an Art Deco Muse statute now located in Manchester, N. H. to Andover.

A Manchester bank is getting rid of the art piece and the town could have it for transportation costs, Driscoll told the voters, but the matter was rejected.

Mosquitoes Remain Liberated

Andover residents will have to continue to swat and slap mosquitoes as town meeting Monday night rejected a proposal to join the Essex County Mosquito Control project.

The proposal presented by Sharin Luti of Cross street was defeated by a 68-vote margin following a considerable debate on the cost and effectiveness of such a program in reducing the mosquito population.

Mrs. Luti, who led a group of West Andover residents interested in obtaining some form of mosquito control for the town, told the advantages of joining the Essex County Mosquito Control project, an agency devoted solely to treating areas in communities to control the proliferation of the insects.

She described the project in its various stages and the use of malathion in miniscule quantities at hours from 2 a.m. to 6 a.m., in order not to harm wildlife, bees and birds.

Mrs. Luti said that after 13 years of study, a program similar as that proposed had not proven a detriment to wildlife.

Cost of the program would be $37,380 and the town would have to commit itself to three years at a minimum.

Finance Committee members were opposed to the project, based on only a ten per cent reduction in mosquito population forecast through use of the program. FinCom also said that there is no proven fact that such a program does not cause ecological damage, stating further that the proposed $111,000 spent over a three-year period would not be cost effective.

Mrs. Dana Duxbury opposed the project based on the history of insecticides being found to be dangerous from time to time. She said that while malathion was approved at present, possibly, like other chemicals, it could later be found to be dangerous.

Mrs. Duxbury also questioned the cost effectiveness stating that based on information, the ten percent reduction forecast would only result on nine mosquitoes biting her leg next year instead of ten.

Mrs. Janet Lake of Greenwood Road appealed to the voters to approve the program to provide some relief for the residents of the community. She noted that her grandchildren visited here last summer from Michigan and returned to their home with red welts from Andover mosquitoes. She also questioned dangers to wildlife, noting that there had been no apparent decline in the bird population when a mosquito control program was in effect here a few years ago.

Robert Pustell, chairman of the conservation commission, pointed out that his board was opposed to the proposal, noting that it makes little difference what chemical is used, it is still poisonous and its effect could be dangerous.

Following a rejection of the proposal by a 365 to 297 vote, Mrs. Luti withdrew a subsequent article calling for the town to undertake initial mosquito control measures at $3,000 until the county project could take over next July 1.

By Renee Pruneau

Andover High was a bustle of excitement this past weekend as Homecoming weekend came and went. Friday night was the Pep Rally, for all sports. The cheerleaders are the producers of this event, AHS athletes the stars.

When people started to arrive they found the walls of the gym plastered with slogans claiming Andover's greatness and a salute to every Andover High team and squad, this was done by the pep club earlier in the day. The cheerleaders did a wonderful job with the Pep Rally. Some of the football players, after being introduced to the audience, were roasted, they cheered and danced the entire night long. They did get some help with the evening performance with some skits put on by various other groups.

One was erformed by the Pep Club, unfortunately the microphone broke and part of the skit was not heard due to the terrible acoustics in the gym. The girl's volleyball team decided to revenge the football players. They roasted some of the cheerleaders and a few of the Indians who also spend the night dancing and adding to the excitement. The AHS band was behind the event. They played the music for the cheerleaders, Indians and majorette. They also played the final song, Andover High's School Song.

The pep rally proved successful as the Andover Golden Warriors triumphed over the Bilerica Indians the next day, 21-8. Many faces that have been missed since school started were seen Saturday afternoon, enjoying watching their Alma Mater in action. During halftime class floats were viewed by the audience. The senior class's float was entitled "We Can't Wait To Go To College" and was a take-off of Animal House, even John Belushi was seen riding it. The Junior Class float, "There's No Place Like Home," had all of the characters from the Wizard of Oz, even Toto, riding their float. The sophomore class showed their affinity to "Saturday Night Live" by having a float of "coneheads" entitled "Who Will be Our Next Conecoming Queen?" After the floats were viewed Homecoming Queen and her attendents were announced.

Homecoming Queen was Peggy Alexander; senior class attendent, Paige Whitley; junior class attendent, Mary Le Petrella and sophomore class attendent, Patty Moynihan. The queen and her court were congratulated and given flowers by

From The Town Meeting Notebook

Just a few notes from the pad about this week's town meeting, which seem worth noting.

Such as the efforts of Sharin J. Luti to provide the town with some measure of mosquito control which ultimately was defeated.

Her efforts and those of the people who worked with her should not go unnoticed. Mrs. Luti received little or no assistance from selectmen when the problem was presented last summer.

She was told the best route to obtain consideration was to gain sufficient signatures and have the item placed on the agenda through pettition.

Over 1,000 signatures were obtained.

After that, Mrs. Luti and her group, sought the necessary information concerning the proposed Essex County Mosquito control project, again as private citizens, in order to provide Monday's meeting with adequate information.

We wonder where all those signators who indicated a desire for relief were last Monday night, and also, wonder if town meeting were in mid-August when the mosquitoes were rampant would the decision have been different.

We accept the will of town meeting, while commending Mrs. Luti for the determined effort in getting the item on the agenda and then gathering the necessary information as an interested and concerned citizen.

While on the subject of commendations, we join with the town in expressing appreciation to Atty. Robert S. Zollner, Mrs. Dana Duxbury and Mrs. Virginia Cole for their service on the Finance Committee.

The three were presented plaques by the moderator Monday night, noting the appreciation of the town for the countless hours spent in performance of FinCom duties.

The Finance Committee is a volunteer organization which oversees the town's financial welfare and makes recommendations to town meeting, based on what it considers to be the financial well-being of the community.

It is often a thankless job, sometimes controversial, and around town meeting time very time-consuming.

That such service is recognized, as it was Monday night, tends to make the effort worthwhile.

And, what would a town meeting in Andover be, without some succinct commentary from the town's elder statesman, Sidney P. White.

Sid, a veteran of town affairs, maintains the knack of getting his audience, even though he might lose on some items.

He managed Monday night to defeat a proposed parade bylaw. The proposal called for obtaining a permit to conduct a parade in town by non-municipal agencies, and, at a fee of $25.

Sid simply noted that he didn't think the voters wanted to make Santa Claus pay $25 for his entrance into town, and it was immediately apparent that there would be no new bylaws governing parades.

Finally, while it doesn't have anything to do with the October town meeting, we might note that those involved in proposed school construction, must be more than pleased with the current proliferation of new industry coming to town, or planning expansion.

At the annual town meeting next Spring, voters will be asked to approve a $10 million school construction project, to include major renovation of East Junior High and construction of an auditorium-classroom building at the high school campus.

Recent industrial development plans could net the town in the vicinity of almost $1 million in new revenue, which of course would greatly ease the tax burden local homeowners would have to bear if the school project is approved.

With a growing wave of Proposition 13 fever, or tax-cap legislation, such potential revenue provides appealing relief.

Voter Information At Library

In anticipation of the election on Nov. 7, the League of Women Voters has prepared a display to assist voters. Information on basic election issues, the seven referenda questions as well as on absentee voting is available. In addition, the Library has in braille, on record and in large print type, for voters with vision problems, the 1978 official "information for voters," provided by the Secretary of State and the Mass. Commission for the Blind.

"Captains Courageous" A Family Film

On Oct. 27 the Friday Feature Film at the Library will be "Captains Courageous," the adventurous tale of a spoiled rich kid who is washed overboard while on a cruise and rescued by the crew of a poor Portuguese fishing boat. Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore and Melvyn Douglas star in this 1937 film for which Spencer Tracy received an Oscar for his portrayal of the rough, honest fisherman who teaches the lad humility and respect for his fellow man.

Feature Films are free to the public and are shown at 7:30 p.m. through the courtesy of the Boston Public Library, Eastern Region.

Speed Reading

A new course in Speed Reading open to adults, high school and college students, will commence on Wednesday, Nov. 8 at Memorial Hall Library. Given by William Simmons of Sanborn Associates, the course will meet on six Wednesday evenings through Dec. 20 and will cost $50. Register for this course at the library's circulation desk or call 475-6960. Space is limited.

Looking for Anne

The "Anne of Green Gables" series by Lucy M. Montgomery is enjoying a revival. The Children's Room would like to add four books in this series to its collection. However, they are currently out of print and therefore unavailable. If anyone owns "Anne of Ingleside," "Anne of Windy Poplars," "Anne's House of Dreams" or "Chronicles of Avonlea," and would like to donate copies to the Library, we would be most appreciative. Call 475-6960.

Children's Room News

Do you have a collection, hobby or items of interest that you would like to display? If you do, the Children's Room has a case for displaying such items as stamps, dolls, miniature animals, etc. During October we have Jonathan Reilly's collection of dinosaurs. If you are interested in sharing your hobby, call the Children's Room at 475-6960.

Our Halloween Special on Oct. 28 at 2 p.m. will be "Winter of the Witch" and "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." All children 6 years and older are invited. Tickets will be given out at 1:30 p.m. Don't miss Captains Courageous to be shown on Nov. 4.

Films on Fridays for preschoolers will be "Three Robbers," "Georgie to the Rescue," "Mole and the Telephone" on Oct. 27. The films for Nov. 3 will be "Night's Nice," "Hush Little Baby" and "Jenny's Birthday Book." The films are shown at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. and are open to all preschoolers accompanied by an adult.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Are Soviet Tactics Used By U.S. Civil Service?

WASHINGTON – According to Washington folklore, presidents are but small dogs wagged by a giant bureaucratic tail. But to the surprise of the political pros, President Carter won his first battle with the bureaucracy. He pushed through unwanted civil service reforms.

This should help him get a handle on the bureaucracy. But our sources believe he would have done better by cleaning out the Civil Service Commission. He has a secret report in his files which tells of civil service violations. The report includes names and details.

The most disturbing practice we have discovered in the federal system was borrowed from the Soviets. We have investigated reports that government officials have tried to ruin the careers of stubborn subordinates by ordering them to take psychiatric fitness-for-duty examinations.

The subordinates can be required to submit to psychological examinations. If they agree, the tests may be stacked against them. If they refuse, they can be fired for insubordination.

We have written about this nasty practice in the past. Now a House subcommittee, led by Rep. Gladys Spellman,D-Md., has documented the story.

The report has not been released, but we have had access to it. So far as we know, this will be the first official acknowledgement that the U.S. government has used the Soviet tactic of branding dissidents as mental cases.

The Spellman report alleges that involuntary psychiatric examinations have been misused to punish unpopular employees. This has happened, according to the report, on a significant number of occasions.

In 80 percent of these cases, the immediate supervisor decided which employees needed psychiatric examinations, even though the supervisors had no medical expertise.

The report also states that the employees have no right to examine the results of their own psychiatric examinations. The only defense they have is to submit written reports on their own behalf.

Finally, the report concludes that the psychiatrists are asked to do something they are not trained to do. They must determine whether an employee is capable of doing his job. Yet the psychiatrists know little about the job and have been trained only to diagnose illnesses. The employee, meanwhile, must prove his innocence or competence.

Our sources claim that the forced fitness-for-duty examinations cause more psychological damage than they prevent.

Watch on Waste: The armed forces and public works agencies recently scraped the bottom of the barrel when they ran short of funds while President Carter battled with Congress until the last minute over how much they would get.

We received a number of protests from military employees who could not collect their salaries. Others had to pay their own travel expenses and wait to be reimbursed.

But at the Army Corps of Engineers, the top brass were as loose with the taxpayers' money as ever. Several of them spent a week at a Savannah, Ga., resort.

It was billed as a conference, and there were some productive work sessions. But they brought along their wives. And they stayed at the luxurious Savannah Inn, which offered golf, tennis and swimming between sessions.

They also used nearby riding stables and fishing boats. The festivities included a T-shirt night and a country-western buffet, complete with live music.

The brass hats had to pay $28 a day out of their own pockets to cover their wives' expenses. But the women were flown to Savannah from all corners of the country, free of charge. In one instance, the Army had to send an extra plane to carry all the wives.

The taxpayers, of course, picked up the $45,000 bill. Yet the Pentagon was supposed to be low on funds. The White House had just ordered a 20 percent cut in administrative travel, and the orders specifically urged the elimination of staff retreats.

A corps spokesman insisted it was not improper to bring the wives on government planes. In the future, he said, the corps would comply with the president's order to reduce travel.

It's just hard to break old habits.

Watch on Waste, Part II: Government scholarships are supposed to be awarded to those who cannot afford an education. But on American Somoa, scholarships are granted to critics of the government to shut them up.

The money for the scholarships, of course, is put up by the American taxpayers.

The daughter of Samoa's House Speaker, for example, received a scholarship after a promised government job fell through. Presumably, this soothed the feelings of both the daughter and the Speaker.

A lawyer involved in litigation against the island's attorney general received another scholarship. A third grant went to the man who was supposed to become president of the Samoan Community College but was rejected by the Samoan governor. The scholarship was a consolation prize, which kept him mollified.

The three scholarships cost the taxpayers a total of $150,000.

Your Hair Today

by Lou Durazzano

Many women wear glasses today, and the many attractive styles of frames makes obsolete the phrase that "men never make passes at girls who wear glasses." If you wear glasses, make sure that you choose frames that suit the shape of your face. The girl with the oval face is lucky, and can wear almost any frame; the girl with the round face should pick a fairly angular frame with pronounced horizontal lines along the top to reduce the circular outlines of the face. Small, round glasses should be avoided.

Whether or not you wear glasses let our professional operators at SUPER CUT HAIR SALON, 93 Main St., 475-3711 help you choose a hair style that will best suit your face and your lifestyle. Here you'll find hair-styyling with imagination . . . hair cutting that's shear artistryy and permanents that are natural looking and long lasting. You'll love the bright cheerful atmosphere of our salon so why not drop in for a visit or phone us for an appointment. We operate an unisex salon where men, women and children are treated royally. Open: Mon.-Sat. 9-5, Thurs. and Fri. til 7.

HELPFUL HINT

Pumpkins and ghosts, goblins and witches! It's time for a good old fashioned Halloween Party at The Haven, next Tuesday, Oct. 31 at 2 p.m. Everyone over 60 is invited. Although costumes are optional, it does make for more fun, and besides, there will be prizes for the most original and for the scariest!! Why not plan to be a kid again and join the fun at The Haven.

Tuesday, Oct. 31, at 9:30, the one session workshop on fabric flowers will take place at The Haven. If you signed up for this Recreation Dept. special, (originally scheduled for Oct. 3) this is the new time.

Mr. William Russell, Andover's tax assessor, will be at The Haven Thursday, Nov. 4 at 2 p.m. to talk about tax abatements and to answer your questions. You'll find he has helpful information on your taxes.

Nov. 3 is the date of the Annual Christmas Bazaar in the Haven lobby from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be hand-crafted items for Christmas giving as well as a bakery table and lunch will be available, too.

Nov. 4 — Saturday — the Andover Lions Club will be at The Haven from 1 to 4 p.m. with their free Glaucoma testing Clinic. If you need a ride to avail yourself of this special service, call The Haven on Friday so they will know who needs transportation.

Got a birthday in November? If you let them know at The Haven, you can be one of the special birthday guests at the November Birthday Party at The Haven, Nov. 8 at 2 p.m. Don't be shy. It's fun to share your birthday with others. Even if your birthday is in July, you must come sing "Happy Birthday" to the others.

The Haven will be closed on Friday, Nov. 10 for Veterans Day, so the Bingo usually held Friday afternoons will be held that week on Thursday.

Several people have been asking about a flu vaccine clinic. Watch these columns for the announcement of the date and time. It will be held as soon as the Andover Board of Health receives their supply of vaccine.

Halloween Treat

On Saturday, Oct. 28 at 2 p.m., the Stevens Memorial Library in North Andover will be showing a 21-minute film entitled Ghosts and ghoulies!

Following this movie, any child who wishes to stay may color in the Haunted Library poster which may be taken home. Preschool children should be accompanied by an adult or an older brother or sister.

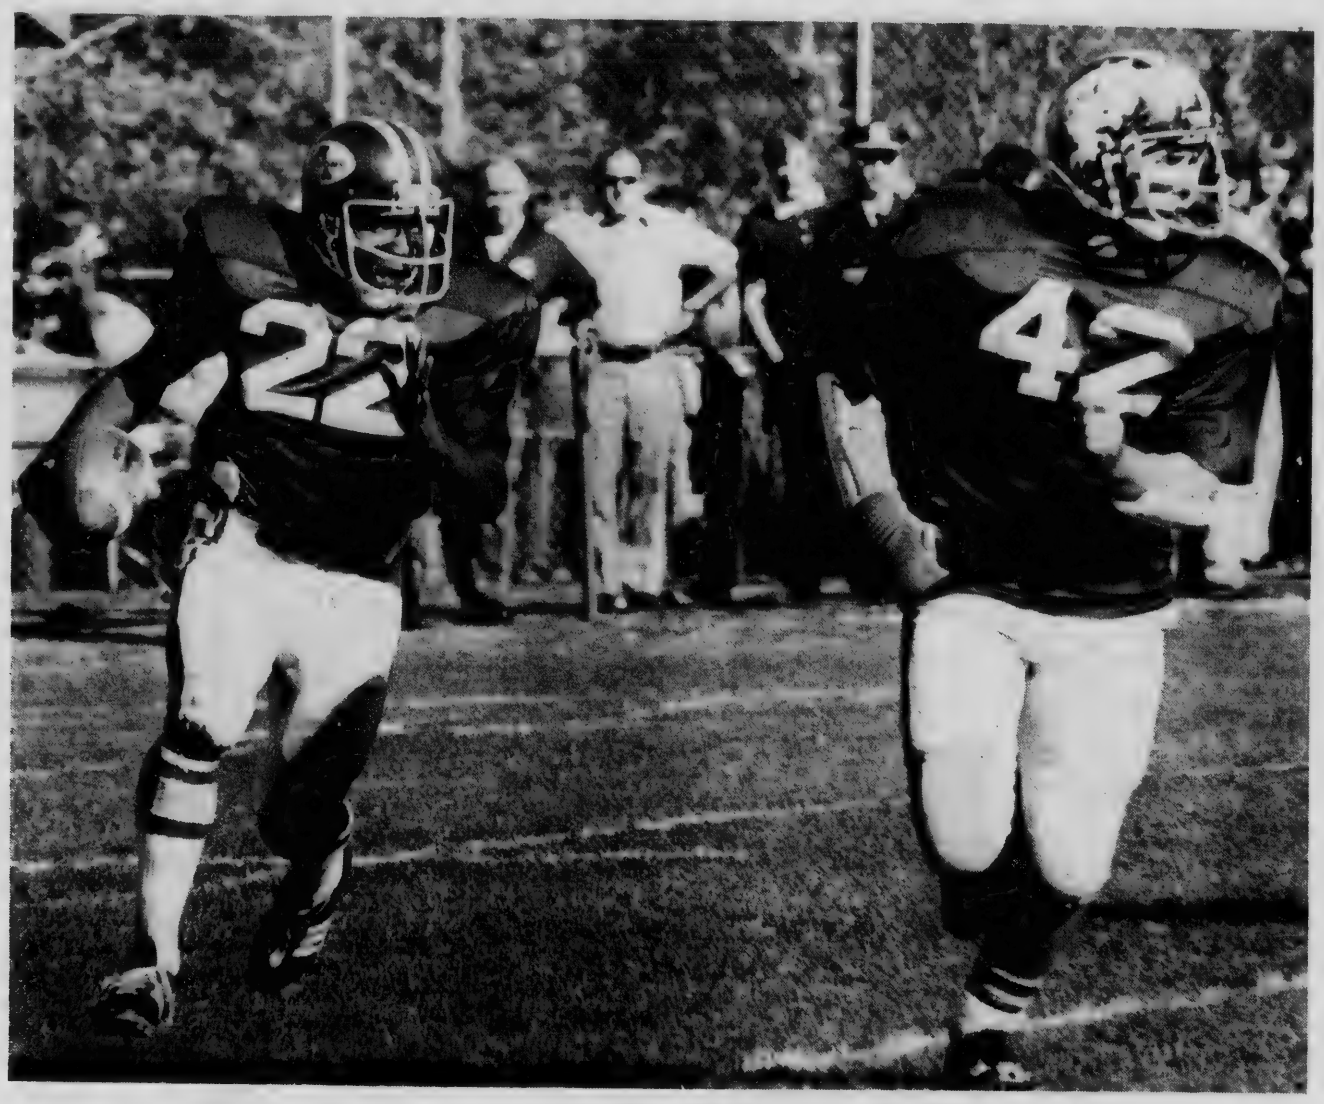
Warriors Reward Homecoming Crowd



Halfback Melvin Berger (22) with some blocking from Fullback Ray Lynch picks up some yardage during last Saturday's Golden Warrior Homecoming over Billerica.

Running Room

By Rick Harrison

When the Merrimack Valley Football Conference season opened five weeks ago, and the talk got around to potential champions, the two schools mentioned most frequently were Chelmsford and Dracut.

Andover High received the "darkhorse" tag, joining three or four other teams in that category.

Chelmsford and Dracut, to be sure, have lived up to advance billing as the Lions are 6-0-0 and the Middies 5-1-0 with the lone loss to Chelmsford.

Darkhorse Andover is also galloping at the head of the pack, however, 5-1-0 overall and tied with Chelmsford atop the MVC standings at 5-0-0.

The Golden Warriors, who play Chelmsford and Dracut Nov. 4 and Nov. 11 respectively, retained their share of first place with a 21-8 victory over Billerica High in the annual "Homecoming Game" last Saturday at Eugene V. Lovely Field.

The overflow crowd filling the Andover side of the stands was treated to one of the most balanced offensive attacks displayed in some time by Coach Dick Collins' crew.

The ground game, which lay dormant most of the season until the rain-soaked 21-0 victory over Methuen, was good for 125 yards against the Indians.

Quarterback Manny Silva, meanwhile, hit 11-of-24 passes for 154 yards and one touchdown.

The lone Billerica TD was set up by a fluke play, and the tough AHS defense has now surrendered only two touchdowns in the last three games.

In disposing of Billerica, now 2-3 in the Conference and 3-3 overall, the Warriors also ridded themselves of a traditionally-tough rival.

Last year Andover struggled to a 13-10 triumph over the Indians, and two years ago Billerica romped to a 38-20 win at Lovely Field.

Efficiency

Collins' crew, which has captured five straight victories following an opening 7-0 non-Conference loss to Wakefield, took the opening kickoff and mounted an impressive 13-play, 70-yard drive to paydirt.

The efficient, machine-like march, which took only 3:53 on the clock, was capped by junior running back Mel Berger's three yard TD plunge.

There were 11 rushes, including two by Silva for 18 yards, two by Dave Nardone for 18 yards, two by Ed Collins for 16 yards, and one by Paul Farnham for nine yards.

Offensive linemen Len Driscoll, Doug Starkweather, Mike Lynch, Ken Dillon and Jeff Hudgins provided some key blocks to escort the ballcarriers downfield.

Silva booted the first of his three perfect PAT placements, making it 7-0, and few scoring drives this season have looked easier.

Falling Behind

On its second play from scrimmage, Billerica fumbled the ball away with Ray Lynch recovering at the Indians' 20 yard line.

However, two plays later a Silva pass intended for Collins was tipped by Jack Hayes, and intercepted at the goalline by Pat Dagle.

A subsequent 61 yard punt by Hayes put the Golden Warriors back on their own 16 yard line.

Two plays gained just two yards, and on third down Indians' defender Art Dorazio picked off a fumble in mid-air and retraced the ball to the AHS nine yard line.

Warriors

Brian Harlow followed with an eight-yard TD run, bursting off left tackle and racing into the endzone untouched. Harlow also rushed the two-point conversion, lifting the pesky Indians ahead 8-7 with one minute remaining in the first quarter.

Bombs Away

Early in the second period the breaks evened out, but not until Billerica was back knocking on the door.

A penalty on the subsequent kickoff put the Warriors deep in their own territory, and a good return of Nardone's ensuing punt gave Billerica good field position at the AHS 42.

Speedy Bob Cassidy, who was making his first start of the season and rushing for 119 yards, immediately ripped off 16 yards to the Warriors' 26.

But on the following play he fumbled, and Nardone recovered at the 20

Nine formations later the home team had cruised 80 yards for the TD that gave them the lead for good.

Another nine yard run by Farnham, a 12-yard screen pass to Nardone, and an eight-yard aerial to Farnham moved the ball to the Billerica 43.

A first down bomb to Bill Lucey fell incomplete, slightly overthrown beyond the reach of the diving wide receiver.

Andover came right back with basically the same play, this time to Mark DeFranco, and it worked for a 43 yard TD bomb. The ball barely eluded defensive back Tom Wronski, and once DeFranco made the catch he was alone by 10 yards.

Silva's conversion upped the score to 14-8 at 3:54 of the second period.

Futile Drive

The Indians consumed all but 50 seconds of the remaining time in the half on an unrewarded 12-play drive that fizzled on the Andover 22.

Cassidy did the bulk of the legwork, carrying seven times for 48 yards, but on a fourth-and-5 from the 23 he was stacked up short by Ray Lynch and Dave Nardone.

A pair of four yard runs by junior Bill Stahley, and a 12 yard pass completion to Berger, ended the half.

Insurance Score

Four punts were exchanged in the third quarter, with the only serious threat by the Indians who took the second half kickoff and drove to the AHS 33 yard line before stalling.

With 12 seconds left in the stanza, and Billerica facing a fourth down at its own 10 yard line, Jack Hayes dropped back to punt from the endzone.

The Golden Warriors came charging hard, and leading the stampede was Joe Lahood who blocked the kick.

Junior Bob Hunter fell on the ball in the endzone, giving the Golden Warriors an insurance score, and Silva's kick upped the spread to 21-8.

Turnovers

Midway through the fourth period the Indians, whose attack was hampered considerably by an inability to pass, were perched on the doorstep after some slick running by Cassidy.

However, once again he fumbled and once again Lynch recovered at the Golden Warriors' 25.

AHS ate up considerable time and yardage after regaining possession, slugging it out to the Indians' 11 yard line behind a 17 yard Ray Lynch run, a 24 yard screen pass to Collins, and a pair of aerials to Farnham for 19 yards.

A costly personal foul penalty killed the drive, setting up a 42 yard fieldgoal attempt by Silva that was plenty long enough but wide.

The last gasp by the Indians was choked off by Nardone, who picked off a Rich Bates' pass.

Statistics

Andover led the stat parade in first downs (15-7), yards passing (154-0), total yardage (288-169) and scrimmage plays, 63-60.

Billerica had the edge in yards rushing, 169-134.

Manny Silva led the well-balanced AHS ground game, which featured 11 different ballcarriers, as he gained 30 yards in eight carries.

Farnham once again was the top receiver with six catches for 61 yards.

Among the consistent defensive standouts were Nardone, Lynch, Driscoll, Bob Surrett (13 tackles), Stahley, Ed Reming and Dan Grams.

The Golden Warriors havenow outscored five Conference foes, 121-30.

Schedule

Andover travels to Veterans Stadium this Saturday for a 1:30 p.m. MVC game

Vikes, Dolphins Tied For Lead

By: Chris O'Reilly

The West Andover Redskins, behind the strong running of Bobby Stobile, upset the unbeaten, unscored upon Bancroft Dolphins 6-0. The Indian Ridge Vikings were victorious over the Central Colts by a score of 13-0 to set up a two-way tie for the Andover Junior Football League lead between the Vikes and the Phins. Each team has a 3 win 1 loss record. Just one game out and showing a strong sign of coming back are the Redskins with a 2 and 2 record, who have won 2 in a row.

Redskins 6, Dolphins 0

In what was the closest game played thus far in the season, the West Andover Redskins upset the Bancroft Dolphins 6-0. In the two teams earlier meeting, the Dolphins ran over the Redskins 19-0, but that would not be the case this time. The Phins kicked off to the Skins to start the game, and the kick was received by Bobby Stabile. The speedy Redskin halfback looked as though he might run it back, getting some great blocks before being brought down at his own 48. The Skins were stalled on their first drive, as neither team's defense was easy to get by for either team. Mark Nardone punted the Skins out of trouble and the Dolphins had a first and 10 at their own 21. On the second play from scrimmage, a screen pass was thrown, and ruled a lateral with the Skins recovering at the Dolphin 19. Two costly penalties made it first and 20 and the Skins missed on a fourth and short yardage play. The Dolphins took over and produced two first downs behind the running of Ralph Dellatto and Chuck Arrigo. On a first and 10, Dolphin back Chuck Arrigo bolted for 25 yards, but an illegal procedure penalty brought it back. That play really cost the Dolphins.

The second quarter began with the Phins having a second and 10 situation on their own 40. The Dolphins tried the old Statue of Liberty Play, but Redskin Bob Stabile nailed the Dolphin back for an 8 yd. loss. The Phins were forced to go to the air, and Chris Marcella intercepted an errant pass, making it first and 10 for the Skins at the Phin's 45. A Redskin Q.B. hit Nardone for an 11 yard gain, but were stopped cold by the Phin defense. The teams traded the ball once more but neither threatened and at the half it was 0-0.

The third quarter came about with the B squads seeing action. The Redskins kicked off and the ball got by the Phin receiver before he picked up the ball at his own 17 yard line. On the third play the Phins fumbled with the Redskins recovering. Two penalties made it first and 20 and the Redskins couldn't get the first down. The Dolphins took over but were stopped cold by the Skins fired-up defense. John Recesso punted 31 yards, but a face mask made it first and 10 for the Skins on their own 41.

The fourth quarter started with the Skins having a first and 10 situation on their own 41. Redskin back Bob Stabile left swept right and rambled 34 yards to the Dolphin 25. From there Q.B. Robbie Harrison hit Stabile on a screen pass and Stabile went in from there. The PAT missed and the score stayed Skins 6-Phins 0. The teams traded the ball once more with the Dolphins trying desperately to get back in it, but the Redskin line led by Mike Donlan and Chris Marcella couldnt be cracked.

The Dolphin attack was hampered by the loss of back, Chuck Arrigo for the second half, but he'll be ready to play next week. Dolphin lineman Jim Wiseman has a broken wrist and will be lost indefinitely. Leading the Skins offense were Bob Stabile, Rob Harrison and 10-year-old B teamer Scott Kelley. Sparking the Redskins tough defense were Hucker Grams, Chris Marcella, Mike Donlan and B teamer Eric Wragg. Leading the Dolphins offense were Dean LoPresti, Pedro Gleason and B teamer Mike Hogg. Sparking the Bancroft defense were Ralph Dellatto, Kenneth Long and John Recesso.

Vikings 13, Colts 0

The Vikings vieing for a share of first place in the A.J.F.L. handed the Central Colts their fourth straight loss.

In the first quarter the Colts kicked off to the Vikes who put the ball in play. They were stopped cold as was much the case in the first quarter as neither team got deep into its opponents territory.. On the last play of the first quarter, Viking back Jim "Whimpie" Stelzer rambled 41 yards to paydirt for his first T.D. of the year. Larry Cuddy swept left and got the conversion and the Vikes had a lead they wouldnt relinquish.

In the second quarter, they had a third and long situation. Viking John Duffy picked off a Colt pass and went 35 yards to the Zone, but an illegal procedure penalty brought his run back. The two teams traded the ball twice more but neither mounted a drive and at the half it was Vikes on top 6-0.

The B squads came in for the third quarter with the Vikes kicking off. The Colts put the ball in play at their own 33 but were stopped on a fourth and short situation at their own 42. After a two-yard dive by Chris Lyons, Vike back Steve Eldred bolted for a big 20 yard gain. Eldred carried again for a 12-yard bulge and that made a first and goal at the Colts 8. On the next play a fumbled snap was picked up by the Colts who returned the favor in the next play. Viking Q.B. Bill Vickers hit Eldred for an eight-yard T.D. strike and the Vikes led 13-0. Bob Salisbury caught a pass from Vickers for the conversion, but a penalty called it back and the Vikes missed their next attempt.

Chris Lyons kicked off for the Indian Ridge crew and Steve Eldred picked it up on the onside kick. On the second play Vickers hit Eldred for what would have been a 40-yard T.D. pass but a ppenalty brught it back.

The fourth quarter came in with both coaches shuffling B and A teamers in. Dyland Callahan and Robbie Carpentier, both B team Q.B.'s, saw action for their respective A teams. Both teams played well in the fourth quarter, but neither threatened. Leading the Vikes offense was Mike Redgatta, Scott Zimmerman and Steve Duncan. Sparking the Viking defense were Rodney Hollenback, Alex Niedzwiecki, and B teamer Mike Busch. Helping out on the Colt offense were Jeff Fox, Glenn Markey, and Eric Pfosi. Leading the Central defense were Shawn O'Shea, Mike Surrett, and B teamers Robbie Carpentier and Ricky Dow.

Banquet

The Annual A.J.F.L. awards banquet will be held on November 14 at the Greater Lawrence Vo-Tech. Tickets for the banquet are available from each team's head coach.

Next weeks games at the Playstead are: 1 p.m., Colts vs. Dolphins; 2:15, Vikes vs. Redskins.

On The Soccer Fields

By She Livermore

With two weeks left in the schedule, the Division Leaders are the Leopards, Jaguars, Dolphins, Hawks, Stompers. The teams in Division 3 Blue are locked in a four-way tie and in Division 4 the Express and Apollos are tied for top spot. Final standings will be published in this column on Nov. 16. Brief results of all the games follows:

Panthers 2, Lions 1

The Lions took an early lead when they scored a goal in the first quarter. The Panthers evened it up in the second quarter when Cameron Deery booted the ball into the Lions nets on a pass from Lukas Wennik. Both teams worked hard to control the ball and score the winning goal, and the Panthers were successful in the final quarter when Cameron Deery again scored on a beautiful pass from Tim Higgins and Tony Ciolfi. ESB: Brian Hannon, Billy Buehner (Panthers).

Tigers 1, Bobcats 1

In a re-match with the BobCats, the Tigers soon learned they would have to work hard if they wanted to win those elusive victory points. The BobCats scored first when Henning Ohlenbusch assaulted the nets successfully; the score was evened by the Tigers when C.J. Kolaski scored on a pass from Robby Ashworth. There were no more goals and once again these teams split the points, something they have both been going since the season began! ESB: Michael Moriarty, Henning Ohlenbusch (BobCats) as well as Michael Flyn, Bobby Connor (Tigers).

Bears 0, Leopards 0

The spirited Leopards who split the points last week in a scoreless game with the Panthers, repeated the performance on Satuday when they played the Bears. Both teams controlled the play at various times throughout the game but were never able to penetrate the defensive lines and score a goal. ESB: Brian Wise, Robby DiAdamo (Bears).

Grades 3/4, Boys (Gold)

Jaguars 4, Wolves 3

In a re-match with the Wolves, the Jaguars found the comptition much tougher and they had to work hard to gain possession of the ball and control it. Goalies for both teams made some beautiful saves (Scott Powers and David Clark) throughout the play, although they could not deny the offensive line's determination to score some goals. The Jaguars won the points with the extra goal scored in the closing minutes of play. Goal getters: Kyle McCabe, Jon Pedicino, Jamie O'Brien (Jaguars) and Richard Bourdelais (Wolves). ESB: Matt Young, Paul McCarthy, Sean Enright, Rusty Leonard (Jaguars) as well as Richard Bourdelais, John Glynn (Wolves).

Pumas 5, Cougars 4

The Cougars found the comptetition much stronger when they once again played the Pumas and whilst they played a great game and scored four goals, the Pumas were able to boot in the additional one in the final quarter to win the victory points. Scoring goals for the winning Pumas were Eric McDowell and Mark Neaves (4) and for the Cougars Stephen Redgate, one on a pass from Bobby Devaney, Ronnie forbes on a pass from Stephen Redgate, and Scott Friese on a pass from John Daly. ESB: Louis Bellaire, Ryan Murphy (Pumas) as well as the entire Cougar team.

Foxes 2, Rams 1

The Rams lost the points to a much improved team in a real heartbreaking rematch. The Foxes took the lead when Chris Sapuppo scored on a pass from Mickey Schallop, which was quickly evened up by Geoff Bolan for the Rams. The Foxes scored again when George Philipp booted one in on a pass from Chris Sapuppo. In the final seconds of the game Nicky Coon booted the ball towards the Foxes net and the whistle blew; the ball hit its target but it was too late and the Foxes were the victors. ESB: Thomas Tormey, Michael Myskowski, Ken DeBenedictis (Foxes) as well as Chris Nelson, David Pratt (Rams).

Divison 2
Grades 3/5, Girls

Stingray 2, Barracuda 1

Both teams worked hard to gain possession of and control the ball in the first two quarters and most of the action took place midfield. In the third quarter, both teams were awarded penalty kicks, successfully completed by Christine Morey (Barracudas) and Caroline Pool (StingRay). The StingRay won the points when Caroline Pool booted the ball into the Barracuda's nets in the closing moments of the game. ESB: Kelly Ross, Caroline Pool (StingRay) as well as Susie Porter, Laurie MacDonald, Cindy Flynn (Barracuda).

Marlin 3, Sharks 1

In a re-match with the Marlin, the Sharks found the competition much stonger and they found themselves playing defensively throughout much of the play. They scored in the second quarter after several attempts to do so failed due to great defensive play, but the spirited Marlin went on to score three goals in the third and fourth quarters, to win the points. Scoring for the Marlin were Susan Clark on a pass from Jenny Hechemy and Kim Lowe, Eileen Murphy on a pass from Susan Clark and Beth Heydt. ESB: Kim Lowe, Susan Clark, Judy Petty (Marlin) as well as Shelley O'Brien, Kristina Moskos, Susan Oskar, Deniece Lenick (Sharks).

Barracuda 0, Marlin 0

In a very evenly matched game, neither team were able to score the elusive goal, although they both worked hard to control the play in each quarter. In the final quarter, the Marlin were awarded a penalty kick and when goalie Susie Porter blocked it, she saved the loss and made it a tie game for her team. ESB: Michele Gerrior, Elizabeth Bakulski (Barracuda) as well as Tahisa Paul, Jenny Hechemy, Anne Marie Kannam (Marlin).

Dolphins 1, Stingray 0

The Dolphins played a very aggressive game against the StringRay and controlled much of the play. They made many assaults on the nets, although great defensive tactics by the Stingray players held them to only one successful goal booted in by Bonny Weinstein to win the victory. ESB: Lori Nelson, Jennifer McAnern (Dolphins) as well as Penny Starks, Kirsten Beigel (Stingray).

Division 3
Grades 5/6, Boys (Gold)

Falcons 2, Hawks 1

In a second re-match with the Falcons, the winning Hawks were challenged by a team determined to win points for a change. They played a super game, kept up the pressure throughout the play and were able to score the extra goal to accomplish their objective. Scoring for the Hawks was Mosa Kaleel on a beautiful pass from Chris Comparato and Peter Quintal; The Falcons goals were booted in by Jeff Ashworth and Fran Sullivan on a pass from Ted McEnroe, ESB: Marten Wennik, Jeffrey Penner (Falcons) as well as David Guerrera, David Cox (Hawks).

Ravens 0, Eagles 1

Most of the action took place midfield with both teams working hard to control the ball. Recalling their previous encounter which resulted in a scoreless game, both teams were anxious to get the ball into the nets. The Eagles finally

Performance At U. Lowell

The University of Lowell Concert Choir performs the important "Faure Requiem" in a joint concert with the Wind Symphony on Thursday, Oct. 26 at the campus performing arts center.

Dr. Edward Gilday, Dean Emeritus of the College of Music, conducts the requiem, a popular offering in the U. S. for the last 25 years. According to Gilday, "The composition is a restrained choral work, closer to chamber music than the requiems of Verdi and Mozart."

The performance is free

Warriors Win One, Lose One

By Ben Bram
Andover High School

The Andover High School soccer team started off the week by losing to former Conference Champions, the Billerica Indians, 1-0. In a game played at Billerica, the Indians scored early and forced the Warriors to play catch-up for most of the game.

Billerica's and the game's only goal was scored by the Indians' leading scorer, Bob DiMattio. DiMatteo trapped a long pass, dribbled across the middle as Andover's goalie, Jeff Nicastro, came out to meet him, and toed the ball away from Nicastro and into the net.

From there on the Warriors' defense game Billerica very few shots. The fullbacks, Greg Moss, Andy Powell, Danny Merrigan and Bob Wilkens, stopped the Indians' attempts while clearing the ball to the Billerica end of the field. Too often, however, the Warriors' passes were too strong. The Indians intercepted these passes and tapped them back to their All-American goalkeeper Aron Rood. Rood, an excellent punter and drop-kicker, blasted the ball back down the field on almost every occassion. The Warriors' goalie, Nicastro, made some good saves and punted the ball well.

The Warriors' midfielders, Eric Ketzler, Peter Price, Eric Brandt, and John Kinsky, didn't surrender anything to the Indians while the front line of Tom Keefe, Gary Cohen, Rusty Serbagi, Thom Wiseman and Steve Luby, created a few opportunities without scoring. The Warriors seemed to improve when Keefe, Wiseman and Luby were in, as the kthree strikers scratched and clawed for every inch, but the Indians were equal to the task of stopping Andover.

On Friday the Warriors faced Lawrence in a game that featured a noticable turnabout in the Warriors' fortunes. Andover broke a three-game losing streak by beating the Lancers, 2-0.

Five minutes and forty-five seconds into the game, senior halfback Eric Brandt attempted to make a pass to Gary Cohen in front of the net. To Cohen's and the Lancers' goalie's surprise, a Lawrence defender leaped high into the air to knock the pass away with his head. Unfortunately for Lawrence, he headed the ball into his own net for a goal and a 1-0 Andover lead. The Warriors kept the pressure on but couldn't score again in the first period.

In the second period, Erick Ketzler chipped a pass to junior Steve Luby, who headed the ball into the Lawrence net for a 2-0 Warrior lead. The score remained the same as the Warriors broke their losing streak.

The victory moved the Warriors into sole possession of fourth place with a 7-5-2 record. The Warriors played at Chelmsford yesterday and will play St. John's Prep at home next Wednesday. The Warriors can't win the conference and in all probability, coach Amundsen will try out many new lines trying to give some of the substitutes some game time.

Pee Wee A Team Expands Schedule

In addition to the Wilmington League, Coach Paul Gilmartin and his staff have entered the Pee Wee A hockey team in a Danvers league which also provides a strong program with most of the advantage that Wilmington provides. Along with the Pee Wee A's, other traveling teams have begun to sign up for this league also.

Going into this week's action, The Pee Wee's have skated to a 4-1 record with wins over Haverhill, Agawam, Everett and E. Boston. The lone set-back was the hands of a strong Winthrop club.

Highlighting the schedule to date was last week's 6-5 win over E. Boston in which Andover came from behind three times to post the victory..

E. Boston took a 1-0 lead before John Crawford tied the score at 2:08 of the first period on an unassistred goal. As the second period becan, E. Boston took a 3-1 lead before Andover tied the score with John Crawford completing his hat trick with two goals, the third coming at 5:41 assisted by Shaun Bateson. However, this was short lived as E. Boston went ahead 4-3 with 27 seconds remaining in the period.

During the second period, Andover received a great emotional lift as goalie Mike Gibson, who has been sensational all year, stopped a "Penalty Shot" by E. Boston at 6:06 to keep the score tied.

As the third period becan, Andover came out skating and ran in three unanswered goals. At 9:43, Jimmy Daly knotted the score at 4-4 on a pass from John Crawford. At 8:06, Billy Donovan, with his never-ending hussle, put Andover ahead to stay on a pretty set-up by Mike Deltrecco. Just two minutes later, Barry Enos scored what proved to be the winning goal assisted by Jeff Kennedy and Billy Donovan.

E. Boston pulled to within one goal at 5:42 but Andover controlled the remainder of the game with some fine defensive play by Steven Duncan, Shane Smith and Fran Ferrara as well as Crawford, Donovan, Daly and Doug Guittarr.

Wilmington League
Somerville 5
Andover 0

On Saturday morning, Andover was shutout bySomerville by a score of 5-0. This was just not Andover's day as the local boys were unable to capitalize on many potential scoring opportunities.

Andover goalie, Steve McDowell, played a strong game in net coming up with many difficult saves. Other strong performances came from veteran Zack Apgar, Ken Crawford, Tom Marjerison and Bill Donovan.

Youth Hockey Underway

The Andover Hockey Association got its program off to an early start this year with practices, tryouts and games beginning in mid-September. In previous years, organized hockey did not start until November which has always left Andover operating at a disadvantage with regard to other towns.

Along with ice time at Merrimack College and Phillips Academy, the A.H.A., for the first time, has entered traveling teams in the youth Hockey League operating from the Wilmington Ice Arena.

The pros for joining this league far outweigh the cons. A higher, more consistent level of competition, a solid playing schedule and roster flexibility are just some of the advantages to this new program.

Because the Wilmington League attracts some of the best caliber hockey in and out of the state, Andover will have to "pay their dues" for the next 2-3 years before competing regularly with the top teams in the league. However, even at this early point, the additional ice time is showing sings of paying off.

Although the traveling teams have been picked, the rosters for league competition are not frozen until December so each boy has an equal chance to move within the program.

The head coaches for these teams include Dick Neal (Bantam A), Charlie Donovan (Bantam B), Paul Gilmartin (Pee Wee A), Dick Benson (Pee Wee B) and Fran Ferrara (Squirts).

Health Careers

A "Health Career Day" will be held at the Northeastern University Godfrey Lowell Cabot Physical Education Center, 360 Huntington Ave., Boston, on Saturday, Nov. 18, from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The purpose of the event is to provide health career information and descriptions of the many programs in the health professions available at Northeastern. Health professionals will be available at information booths with demonstrations and campus tours. All interested members of the public are invited, with special emphasis on high school students.

Trash Fish

New England "trash fish" that could be used are: monkfish or anglerfish whose white meat is popular in the Mediterranean area; yellow eel which can be filleted, and spiny and smooth dogfish (rock salmon) popular in Europe, Massachusetts Audubon points out.

Gulls 4, Owls 0

The spirited Gulls having lost one game to the Owls, as well as tied them in their second encounter, were determined to win the victory points. They dominated much of the play, although the Owls made some good shots on their nets, all blocked by alert goalie Eric Fredenson. The Gulls scored four goals before the final whistle (Tom DeLeire on a pass from Brian McAnally, Brian McAnally (2) and John Todt and accomplished their objective. ESB: Danny Sheehan, Steve Colitz (Gulls) as well as Paul Hevehan, Michael Lydissen, Jeff Kuo, Eric Sanborn (Owls).

Buzzards 1, Orioles 1

With a win apiece in two previous encounters, both teams worked hard to control the play and get the ball into the goal zones. The first two quarters were scoreless with the defensive lines on both teams doing a brilliant job. The Orioles were able to score in the third quarter to take the lead (Bruce Lane); however, the Buzzards evened it up in the final quarter when Chris Arserio scored on a pass from Michael Avella, and the game ended in a tie. ESB: Tom Novelline, Scott Goldman (Buzzards) as well as Rob Foley, Ray Reed (Orioles).

Division 4

Caribous 1, Whitecaps 1

The Caribous took an early lead when Beth Luciano booted the ball into the Whitecaps nets. The Whitecaps evened it up in the second quarter on an indirect kick. Both teams worked hard to score the winning goal but failed in the attempt, and as a result they both split the points. ESB: Kathryn Schwarz, Maggi DeLeire, Erica Augello, Andrea Augello (Caribous).

Appollos 2, Rangers 1

The Appolos were quite aggressive in the first quarter, during which they successfully assaulted the Rangers' nets.

Annual Fruit Drive

The Fellowship of Christian athletes last year sent 47 young Adoverites to Christian leadership summer conference. The conference, in this area, is at Williams College as soon as school is out in June.

To raise the $120 per young athlete required for attendance, the local FCA huddle is beginning its third annual citrus fruit sale. The fruit orders are taken and the FCA dealer in Florida is called. Then the fruit is picked and shipped direct by refrigerated truck thus the produce is generally about four days off the tree.

About 60 young athletes from the high school will be canvasing Andover's neighborhoods during the next three weeks. The fruit will be available for pick-up at Saint Augustine's school hall on Saturday Nov. 18 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Buying fruit from FCA insures extra fresh fruit at supermarket prices or better. Those who have ordered in the past rave about the quality.

Any questions on the FCA fruit drive please contact Robert T. King, 17 Williams St., Andover.

The U.S. Department of Transportation's Federal Aviation Administration employs more than 1300 women air traffic controllers.

HOME IS WHERE YOUR BUS IS.

The '78 VW Campmobile Bus is probably the most versatile family vehicle ever. During the week, it's perfect for carting your crowd around town. And on weekends, it turns anywhere into your home away from home. Because the '78 Campmobile has everything you need to live in comfort, including the kitchen sink.

The VW Campmobile Bus sleeps three with a big double bed for the two of you. And when you need more room, the optional pop-up top sleeps two more kids. The Campmobile comes with color-coordinated curtains on the window. Louvered side windows with screens. Even insulated wood-panelled walls.

And not only does it save on renting a cottage, the '78 Campmobile Bus saves plenty on fuel, too. Its peppy, fuel-injected, two-liter engine gets an estimated 25 mpg on the highway, 17 in the city, according to 1978 EPA tests.*

So, when you want to get away from it all without ever leaving the comforts of home, remember. It's more fun to take the Bus. The '78 VW Campmobile Bus. See your Volkswagen dealer today.

Metros 3, Sockers 1

The Metros dominated much of the play in the first half, during which they scored two goals to take the lead (Zack Apgar on a pass from Tim Holt and Eddie Melia on a pass from Dan Boland). The Sockers played much stronger in the second half and made many assaults on the Metros nets, succeeding on one occasion when Steven Kilmain scored. The Metros were able to score again (Tim Jennings on a pass from Dan Boland) and they won the victory. ESB: Sean Trombly, Dean Lockwood, Robert Teichert (Metros) as well as Carl Schwind, Ken Saliba (Sockers).

Stompers 7, Roughnecks 0

The Stompers played very strong throughout the game, forcing the Roughnecks into a defensive position. Fullbacks Richie Giammasi, Danny Poore and Mike Drozdick did a super job in their efforts to defend the Roughnecks goal zone but the Stompers were determined and they scored seven goals before the final whistle blew. Scoring goals for the Stompers were Ken Heydt (5), one on a pass from Peter Scanlon, Marc Bolan and Brian Sheehy (penalty shot). ESB: Patrick Poore, Brian Sheehey, Dean Weaver, Mark Bolan (Stompers) as well as Rob Retelle, Chris Egan, John Tremblay, Ken Flynn (Roughnecks).

Lancers 4, Tornadoes 3

The Tornadoes took the lead when Greg Batten dribbled the ball from centerfield and booted it into the nets. They increased it to two when David Souter scored on a pass from Alvin Ohlenbusch. The Lancers came from behind in the second half and Paul Thoday scored twice, once on a pass from Rick Mangano and a penalty kick. Kurt Oliver made it three on a direct kick and the Tornadoes tied it up when Greg Batten scored on a great pass from David Souter. The Lancers won the victory when Rick Mangano scored on a great play by John Hevehan and Scott West. ESB: David Reed, Glenn Barnes, Ray Adams (Lancers) as well as Andrew Halbach (Tornadoes).

Stompers 6, Tornadoes 0

The Stompers continuing their winning streak played very aggressively and the spirited Tornadoes had to work hard to minimuze the loss. Despite great team effort, the Stompers were successful in scoring six goals before the final whistle blew (Ken Heydt, Gordon Hannah, Peter Surette on a pass from Ken Heydt, and Dean Weaver on a pass from Steve Carbone). ESB: John Lemieux, Ken Heydt, Dean Weaver (Stompers) as well as Kevin against Lawrence High (2-4-0).

Chelmsford, which has outscored its opponents 164-15, will face Wilmington (4-1-0) this Saturday.

Assuming the two co-leaders win, it will set up a classic first place showdown Nov. 4 at Lovely Field (2 p.m.) between the Lions and the "darkhorse."

A new solar-powered industrial civilization could develop in the tropics as fossil fuels become scarce and expensive, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

Lecture

A free lecture on Mapping the Grand Canyon will be given at Boston's Museum of Science by the Museum director, Bradford Washburn, on Monday, Nov. 6 at 8 p.m.

High school and college students are invited to remain after the lecture to learn about opportunities to participate in field expeditions from the Expedition Training Institute, Boston. The Institute and the Explorer's Club of New York are sponsors of the lecture.

Washburn will illustrate the lecture with his own color slides taken in the course of his mapping project. (The National Geographic has recently published his map of the central Canyon, the first large-scale rendition ever made.)

In addition to showing views of the Canyon at contrasting seasons and times of day, Washburn will describe his use of advanced surveying techniques and the challenges they involved.

Auto Show

The excitement is mounting as the more luxurious, more personal, more economical cars from Detroit and around the world prepare for their New England debut at the International Auto Show, Hynes Veterans Auditorium, Prudential Center in Boston, Nov. 11 through 19.

Metric System Workshop

An estimated twenty billion measurements are made every day in the United States and the number made around the world is several times larger. With world trade, communication, and travel increasing rapidly, it is essential that a worldwide uniform system of measurement be used. The metric system or the International System of units has been agreed upon by the Nations of the world to be such a system.

Evan Johnston, the executive director of the Northeast Metric Resource Center, will be in Andover on Monday, Nov. 13 to conduct a Metric Workshop at Andover high school from 7:30-9:30 p.m. for those who would like to learn and become familiar with the metric system. Johnson proposed a New England wide push for metrics in 1974 with the establishment of the Resource Center at the University of Massachusetts and is coordinating much of the six state effort to convert to the system.

Johnson ticks off the origin of some of the non-technical measurements we use to run our technical world. Inch: three barleycorn seeds laid end to end in ancient Egypt. Foot: the length of a ruler's foot (which also gave us the ruler). Yard: the length of a king's arm from his nose to his thumb. Rod: the length of the left foot of 16 Frenchmen wearing Sunday shoes placed end to end. Johnston thinks we can do better, "I'm for metric not because we're being forced into it, but because it's a better system.

The workshop will delve into the numerous implications as well as the actual usages of the metric system. Both in person and mail registrations will be accepted at the Andover Department of Community Services, 36 Bartlet St.

Computer

had 15 year's experience with computers, agreed that the town has the need for data processing, but said he didn't like the spending of $300,000 when there were many "gray areas."

He said it wasn't easy as it sounded to train current employees to use the computers, and he found it "hard to believe" they could get by without hiring any specialists.

He questioned the choice of ADMINS as software for the town portion, since they have been in business only since 1976, and finally, he said he wouldn't vote the money, but rather would hire a consultant to design a whole system based on the town's needs.

In answer to questions about financing, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark replied that they had originally proposed to enter a lease-purchase plan at 9 percent interest, but the Finance Committee wanted them to purchase outright through bonding, at 4½ percent interest. When the town's free cash was certified, he said, there was enough available to save the interest entirely.

He said he had recently visited three communities which use the ADMINS system, and that the managers of those communities say that for the first time in their careers they have become "managers," because they have timely and accurate financial information at their fingertips.

Clark said those communities don't have highlyy technical people in charge, and were able to train some of their existing employees. He added that the school computer will be in the hands of a computer staff at the Voke School.

John Baker of the Computer advisory Committee added that ADMINS is in use by such corporations as Citibank of New York, Chase Manhattan Bank, Eastern Airlines, and Dow Chemical as well as several municipalities. He said the applications will already have been tried elsewhere, and merely be tied to Andover's needs.

Baker said the town will actually save money with two computers, because it can use additional equipment at the Voke School and not have to but it. He added that the Voke would not go into municipal applications.

Joseph Howard, 7 Livingston Circle, still questioned the need for two computers, and maintained there were other ways of satisfying the school needs if there was to be no computer-assisted instruction (CAI). He and Warren Patterson of Cheever Circle added the two unsuccessful amendments.

Joseph Odlum, 11 Stevens Circle, said the town was not going to save any money, that the costs of maintaining the equipment would go up every year, and that it is a question of compensating for "mismanagement" of the past.

FinCom Chairman Donn Byrne countered that town was not mismanaged, but that they were looking for "better" management. "This program will do that," he said.

Beverly Darling, 136 Elm St., insisted that the town has grown to the point that it "must go into a more modern way," and recommended the technical side be left up to committees.

Gene Bernardin, Reservatinon Road, complimented the computer committee on its "terrific" job and said the town meeting would be "negligent" if it didn't approve their study.

Righteous Jazz Band In Concert

The Methuen Memorial Music Hall's 1978 Variety Series concludes in a new and provocative musical presentation on Friday, Oct. 27 at 8:30 p.m. with the Righteous Jazz Band.

The reverberation qualities of this hall should really project the full tone of the band.

Jazz enthusiasts note the following program and come visit the Hall.

I Ain't Gonna Give Nobody None of My Jelly Roll (1919) — Spencer Williams; Baby Wont You Please Come Home (1919) — Clarence Williams and Charles Warfield; Tin Roof blues (1923) — New Orleans Rhythm Kings with George Brunis; Royal Garden Blues (19200) — Spencer Williams; I Want a Little Girl (1930) — Murray Mencher and Billy Moll; I Ain't Got Nobody (1915) — Spencer Williams; Ballin' the Jack (1913) — Chris Smith; That's a Plenty (1909) — Henry Creamer and Bert Williams

Madison Hill — Professional Upholstering & Restoring

Good furniture is made to last a lifetime — enjoy your favorite furniture pieces as long as you wish by having them reupholstered by Madison Hill Reupholstering, 75 Manchester Street, in the Arlington Mills, Lawrence. Just call Madison Hill at 686-7264 and a trained decorator will call at your home with an unlimited fabric selection.

All work is done in their own factory, by their own expert craftsmen. Madison Hill uses only kiln dried hard woods, steel webbing and tempered coil steel springs hand tied with Italian flax coated with latex to increase tensil strength and retard deterioration. All cushions are filled by air pressure; all non-allergenic filler is used. All fabrics are lock-stitched, edges over-locked, and skirts lined with buckram. Patterns are carefully matched to bring out the best in the fabric. Finished pieces are steamed in the shop, so shrinkage is taken out before delivery.

The result is a "like new" piece of furniture that is actually better than new because the frame has been rebuilt and strengthened where needed, wood rebuffed to its original lustre, cushions replaced with comfortable new ones, and covered in a top quality fabric that enhances the decor of your present home.

. Antique restoration is another specialty of Madison Hill. John Comasso, owner, is an expert on antique restoration and can rebuild and restore antique furniture with the authenticity of the old artisans who handcrafted their pieces in a labor of love.

You can entrust your fine antiques to Madison Hill.

Custom made furniture is also made in Madison Hill's own factory in Lawrence. Give them your specifications and they will custom build living room pieces, den sets, convertible sofas, whatever you want. They also make handsome slipcovers and draperies.

For further information or for a decorator to call at your home with fabrics, call Madison Hill at 686-7264; or visit their factory any time at 75 Manchester Street, Lawrence.

Elm Street Automotive — Towing, Repair, Road Service

When you need road service or require towing for any reason, call Elm Street Automotive at 475-5873; or nights and holidays at their 24-hour number 683-2712. Elm Street Automotive, located at 15 Elm Street, just off the square in Andover offers complete AAA service and can be at your service within minutes of your telephone call.

The reason for this fast service? Elm Street Automotive has four, that's right FOUR wrecker trucks standing by ready to answer any call for towing or road service. In addition, they now have a flat bed carrier for special towing jobs. They have the equipment to handle truck towing as well as passenger vehicles.

The experienced mechanics at Elm Street Automotive do major and minor repairs on all makes and models of cars. Foreign cars are their specialty. Ron Abraham, owner, and his men Tommy Carta, Richie Zeytoonian, Johnny Lally, Harry Krikorian and Leo Lynch offer you many years of experience, conscientious work and guaranteed satisfaction on all auto repairs. As a convenience to customers, they will pick up and deliver repair work.

Why not have Elm Street Automotive winterize your family automobiles right now. They will check the antifreeze, check the battery to guarantee you fast starts on cold mornings, do a complete tune-up if necessary. They stock a good supply of snow tires and it's a good idea to buy your tires from your local mechanic who will be putting them on and off for you each year.

Whatever your automotive problems, call or drop in at Elm Street Automotive, 15 Elm Street, Andover. You'll like their service, their prices and the quality of work they offer. Master Charge, BankAmericard and Texaco cards accepted. And remember, for towing or road service of any kind, remember Elm Street Automotive, the shop with Four Wreckers on duty 24 hours a day. Tel. 475-5873. Or nights and holidays, tel. 683-2712.

Homecoming

Pete Newton and Bill Eaton of the Student Advisory Council.

The remainder of the afternoon was extremely festive. Some of the graduates joined the Indians and cheerleaders in a chorus line. Everyone paraded around with blue and gold carnations sold by AFS or Andover Warrior buttons, sold by the Pep Club.

Saturday evening a homecoming dance was held in the gymnasium. The senior class sponsored this dance. They had a D.J. who played some of the popular hits and even conducted a dance contest, the winners of which were, Lisa Hollis and Greg Moss.

So Homecoming weekend '78 was a success. It is amazing to see the change that has come over some of last year's seniors in the past six months and it's even more amazing to see those who haven't changed at all.

Keeler In NATO

Sgt. Russell H. Keeler, Jr., whose parents live at 17 Harding St., Andover, is participating with other American and allied troops in Reforger '78, NATO's largest yearly exercise, held in Germany.

More than 11,000 soldiers were flown in Germany and some 37,000 tons of equipment and supplies have been shipped from the U.S. for the massive exercise.

Keeler, a fuel specialist with the 503rd Supply and Transport Battalion in Frankfurt, Germany, entered the Army in July 1969.

He completed his high school education through the General Educational Development program.

The sergeant's wife, Suk Y., is with him in Germany.

FIDUCIARY'S ACCOUNT

To all persons interested in the estate of MIRIAM F. CARPENTER (late) of Andover in said County: and to the ATTORNEY GENERAL of said Commonwealth:

You are hereby notified pursuant to Mass. R. Civ. P. Rule 72 that the first and final account of EDWARD F. CREGG as administrator with the will annexed of said estate of said deceased has been presented to said Court for allowance.

If you desire to preserve your right to file an objection to said account(s), you or your attorney must file a written appearance in said Court at Lawrence on or before the thirteenth day of November 1978, the return day of this citation. You may upon written request by registered or certified mail to the fiduciary or to the attorney for the fiduciary obtain without cost a copy of said account(s). If you desire to object to any item of said account(s), you must, in addition to filing a written appearance as aforesaid, file within thirty days after said return day or within such other time as the Court upon motion may order a written statement of each such item together with the grounds for each objection thereto, a copy to be served upon the fiduciary pursuant to Mass. R. Civ. P. Rule 5.

Witness, ALBERT P. PETTORUTO, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixth day of October 1978.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE
OCTOBER 11, 1978

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by GRANVILLE K. CUTLER, III and ELAINE L. CUTLER, husband and wife, of Andover in the County of Essex and State of Massachusetts, to the ANDOVER SAVINGS BANK, a corporation established in Andover, Massachusetts dated January 4, 1972, recorded in the North District of Essex Registry of Deeds Book 1186, Page 194, for breach of conditions contained in said mortgage deed, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, and in accordance with a decree of Land Court (case no. 90779-Misc.) will be sold at public auction on the mortgaged premises on Tuesday afternoon, November 14, 1978, at three o'clock, the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon containing 2.69 acres, more or less and situated on the Easterly side of Red Spring Road in said Andover, bounded and described as follows: Westerly by Red Spring Road; Northerly by land now or formerly of Patrick Donovan; Easterly by the Shawsheen River; and Southerly by land now or formerly of the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Said premises will be conveyed subject to all unpaid taxes and to any other municipal assessments. A deposit of $2,000.00 in cash, bank check or certified check will be required of the purchaser at the time and place of sale and the balance of the purchase money is to be paid in cash, bank check or certified check within twenty days thereafter to be deposited in escrow with the firm of Tomlinson & Hatch pending approval of said sale by the Land Court. Deed to be taken within ten days from the date of approval of said sale by the Land Court. Other terms, if any, to be announced at the sale.

LOOKING? KEEP A RECORD

Buying a home is a big investment and involves major decisions. So, it's understandable why so much time and care is taken when looking for a home that's right for you. No one knows this better than your local Realtor.

Once the Realtor takes on the assignment of finding you a home, he'll probably show you several. Therefore, it's important to take notes on what you have seen or you may forget which home is where, how big it is, what shape it's in, and how much it costs.

Your Realtor can provide you with a checklist to make this important task easier. This way, you can rate each home as you see it and instantly recall the location, price, construction, number of rooms, heat, fuel, taxes, and financial requirements. If you have a Polaroid picture of the house to go with the notes — so much the better when describing it to your other half.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Are you overlooking an extraordinary way of life?

These people are.

They're residents of Millpond. An extraordinary community of contemporary townehomes in historic North Andover.

At Millpond, a firm regard for the traditions of the past exists side by side with a healthy respect for the joys of modern living.

Take the townehomes themselves. Like the land they occupy, they are bold, rugged, and natural on the outside. Gracious, expansive, and fully convenient on the inside.

There are tennis courts here. A swimming pool. A private beach and boat dock on historic Stevens Pond.

There are nature trails. And ski trails. And riding paths. All on 22 of the most beautiful acres of New England countryside you've ever seen.

The Millpond lifestyle begins at $78,800. Why not come out sometime; and take a careful look at this carefully planned community.

To get here, take Rt. 495 to the Mass. Avenue exit (North Andover). Turn left on 125, and one-half mile later, turn right on Pleasant St. Millpond is one-quarter mile down, on Stevens Pond. From Rt. 128, take 93 North to Exit 15 (Rt. 125 to North Andover). At 114/125, turn left. Bear right at first traffic light, staying on 125. Turn right on Pleasant St., about 1½ miles down. Millpond is a quarter of a mile away.

Interchange Prospects Brighten

Prospects of a Route 93 interchange into the Lowell Junction industrial area seem a little brighter this week, following a meeting of state and town officials last Friday.

Commissioner John J. Carroll of the state department of public works indicated to local officials that he would look favorably toward an environmental impact study (EIS) for the area, a preliminary step toward providing the access road. Carroll said he would recommend such action to state Secretary of Transportation Frederick Salvucci.

The meeting, arranged by State Rep. Gerald Cohen, was aimed at accelerating the planning for an access road into the industrial area in order to relieve traffic problems in the Ballardvale area. Increased industrial development in the junction was stressed as an underlying need for moving the project ahead.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told Carroll that the EIS would be the most sensible first step to providing a solution to the traffic problems through the construction of an interchange into the industrial area.

Clark said Carroll was supportive of the proposal and said he would recommend such a study to Secretary Salvucci.

Further stressed was the need to begin the study as soon as possible and not await a change in administration at the state level, since considerable time would be lost in the process.

Location of an access road also effects plans of Instrumentation Laboratory which is planning development of some 50 acres in Lowell Junction north of the Gillette plant.

IL might have to relocate one of its planned future buildings depending on where the access road is located.

Clark explained that IL plans call for total development over a three to five year period, which provides sufficient time to plan for the interchange. But delay in taking the initial step, the EIS, would hamper the overall timetable, thus the emphasis in beginning now.

The manager said that the planning process can benefit both the incoming and outgoing state administrations, as the move is toward correction of a serious problem and the continued improvement of the industrial climate in the town and state.

It is estimated that construction of the interchange would be a $1 million project, with the state paying one-quarter of the cost and the federal government the remainder.

There are options to interchange off Route 93, into the industrial area, but the direct route is the least costly.

recent industrial development, with yet another firm proposing location at the Lowell Junction industrial area.

Officials of Industrial Material Technology, Inc., are expected to meet with Industrial Development Commission members and the town manager Friday morning to discuss building a plant on six acres of land near the Cressey-Dockham plant.

In recent weeks, Instrumentation Laboratory has announced plans to develop 50 acres of land in Lowell Junction and Polaroid Corp., is to develop some 50 acres in the West Andover Industrial land owned by Arkwright-Boston Insurance, near the Hewlett-Packard plant. Cressey-Dockham has approval from local and state Industrial Financing Authorities, to obtain financing for a $2.75 million expansion of its Lowell Junction property. Harris Environmental Systems, Inc. of Winchester, is also planning a 37,000 square foot building for the Lowell Junction area.

Open House

Pingree School, Highland Street, South Hamilton, will hold its Annual Open House on Saturday, Oct. 28 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Seventh to tenth grade area students and their parents are invited to attend a program designed to acquaint them with the facilities and curriculum.

Pingree School was established in 1961 when the fifty acre estate of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Pingree was offered as a site for the school. It is a coeducational college preparatory school of 218.
